Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to change enrollment in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective March 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 13, 2016, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the December 13, 2016 application, stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2017.

Also on December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that your enrollment in a bronze level qualified health plan was effective January 1, 2017.

On February 7, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective March 1, 2017. You also attempted to change enrollment in a qualified health plan but were unable to select a different plan for enrollment.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on February 7, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to change enrollment in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On February 8, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the February 7, 2017 application for health insurance, stating that you were eligible purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective March 1, 2017. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On May 9, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On December 13, 2016, you submitted an application for health insurance and selected a bronze level qualified health plan for enrollment.
- 2) You testified that on [REDACTED], you learned that you were pregnant.
- 3) On February 7, 2017, you submitted an updated application for health insurance. This application indicated that you were pregnant.
- 4) Also on February 7, 2017 you attempted to change your enrollment in a qualified health plan.
- 5) You testified that you want to select a different plan because the providers you want to treat with do not accept your current plan.
- 6) You explained that when you initially selected a plan for enrollment for 2017 coverage, you compared different plans, and contacted the plan you selected directly for information. However, you did not know you were pregnant at that time, so you were not investigating pre-natal and post-natal providers.
- 7) You testified that since filing your application on February 7, 2017, there have been no other major changes to your household.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

In New York, pregnancy triggers a special enrollment period for individuals without insurance allowing them to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH's Exchange (NYS Insurance Law § 4328(b)(4)(A)). However, this law does not allow individuals who have already enrolled in qualified health plans and later become pregnant to change to a different qualified health plan.

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective March 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On December 13, 2016, during the open enrollment period for 2017, you enrolled in a bronze level qualified health plan with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2017. On [REDACTED], you re-applied for health insurance indicating that you were now pregnant and requested to change your qualified health plan. On February 8, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

Although pregnancy is a triggering life event that may qualify an individual for a special enrollment period to enroll in health coverage, the law applies to pregnant individuals who are not currently enrolled in health insurance (emphasis added). Therefore, the new law does not allow an individual who is already enrolled in a qualified health plan and later becomes pregnant to change to a different qualified health plan, as in the present case.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's February 8, 2017 eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 8, 2017 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 11, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
