Decision

Decision Date: June 16, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015627

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid for November 1, 2016 through November 30, 2016?

Procedural History

On January 3, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance and indicated that you were seeking help with paying for medical bills for November 2016.

On February 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid. This eligibility was effective as of January 1, 2017.

Also on February 4, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid for November 1, 2016 through November 30, 2016 because the monthly household income of $5,484.00 was over the allowable monthly income limit of $1,367.00.

On February 7, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as it denied retroactive Medicaid for the month of November 2016.

On June 13, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking Medicaid coverage from November 1, 2016 through November 30, 2016.
- 2) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 federal income tax return as single, and claim no dependents.
- 3) You submitted an application for financial assistance on January 3, 2017.
- 4) Your application submitted on January 3, 2017, states that for the month of November 2016, your income was $5,484.00.
- 5) You testified during the hearing that your income for the month of November 2016 might have been $7,000.00, but you could not remember exactly. You testified that you know your November 2016 income was over $5,000.00
- 6) You testified that you are paid sporadically because of the nature of your work, and that, even though your November 2016 income was over $5,000.00, your annual income for 2016 was only $17,883.00.
- 7) You testified that you did not realize that your medical insurance had expired, and you were away for work during the month of November 2016. You testified that, in that month, you incurred over $8,000.00 in medical bills due to [REDACTED], and that these bills are still outstanding.
- 8) During the hearing, you confirmed that your address is [REDACTED], [REDACTED], NY [REDACTED].

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the federal poverty level (FPL) for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Retroactive Medicaid

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of an initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 USCA § 1396A(34); 42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid coverage for November 1, 2016 through November 30, 2016.

You are in a one-person household; you file your taxes with a tax filing status of single and claim no dependents on your tax return.

You submitted an application for financial assistance on January 3, 2017, and requested help in paying for medical bills for November 2016.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

When an individual files an initial application for Medicaid, his or her eligibility for retroactive Medicaid depends on the date of application. To this end, it does not matter whether that initial application resulted in Medicaid going forward. Instead, an individual, who has filed an initial application for Medicaid through NYSOH, has the right to be evaluated for Medicaid for the three months before the month of his or her application.

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and if they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid in November 2016, you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during November 2016.

Based on your testimony and the information in your NYSOH account, your income was somewhere between $5,000.00 and $7,000.00 in the month of November 2016.

Because your income was more than the $1,367.00 monthly Medicaid limit for November 2016, NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid coverage during that month. Therefore, the February 4, 2017 eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid in the month of November 2016, is correct and is AFFIRMED.

PLEASE NOTE: Your mailing address was marked as "invalid" by NYSOH on May 8, 2017 because a document sent to that address came back to NYSOH as returned mail. Your case is being RETURNED to NYSOH to revalidate your mailing address, based on your sworn testimony that your mailing address is still [REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and since only one document mailed to that address has ever been returned to NYSOH.
