Decision

Decision Date: May 31, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015716

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eldest child was eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus at full cost, effective March 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On February 10, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance through NYSOH. Based on that application, NYSOH rendered a preliminary eligibility determination finding in part that your eldest child was eligible to enroll in a Child Health Plus plan at full cost.

Also on February 10, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to the amount of financial assistance your eldest child was determined eligible to receive.

On February 11, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating in part that your eldest child was eligible to enroll in a Child Health Plus at full cost, effective as of March 1, 2017.

On May 16, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, your eldest child was born on [REDACTED]
- 2) You testified that you currently reside with your eldest child only.
- 3) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your 2017 federal income tax return, with the tax status of single, and expect to claim your eldest child as your only tax dependent on that return.
- 4) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, your expected yearly income is $70,000.00.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you do not expect to claim any deductions on your 2017 federal income tax return.
- 6) You testified that, based on your living expenses, you are not able to afford your eldest child's health insurance premium.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

"Adjusted gross income" means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Household Composition

Generally, a tax dependent's household is the same as the household of the taxpayer who is claiming them as a tax dependent (42 CFR § 435.603(f)(2)).

Child Health Plus

A child who meets the eligibility requirements for CHP may be eligible to receive a subsidy payment if the child resides in a household with a household income at or below 400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) (NY PHL § 2511(2)(a)(iii)).

The amount of the premium payment, if any, that must be made on behalf of a child who enrolls in a CHP plan depends upon the child's family household income (NY PHL § 2510(9)(d)). No payments are required for eligible children whose family household income is less than 160% of the FPL (NY PHL § 2510(9)(d)(1)). If the family household income is 160% or higher, premiums range from $9.00 per month to $60.00 per month (NY PHL § 2510(9)(d)).

In an analysis of Child Health Plus eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which was $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Federal Regulation 8831).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined on February 11, 2017, that your eldest child was eligible to enroll in a Child Health Plus plan at full cost, as stated in the February 11, 2017 notice.

You testified that you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return, with the tax status of single, and expected to claim your youngest child as your only dependent on that return. Generally, a tax dependent's household is the same as the household of the taxpayer who is claiming them as a tax dependent. Therefore, your eldest child is in a two-person household for purposes of this analysis.

In your February 10, 2017 application, you attested to an expected household income of $70,000.00. You testified that this amount was correct.

However, you testified that, based on your current living expenses, you could not afford to pay the full cost of premium of your child's Child Health Plus coverage and you wanted this to be taken into consideration. Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for financial eligibility purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $70,000.00.

A child is eligible to enroll in a Child Health Plus with financial assistance, if they meet the non-financial requirements and have a household income below 400% FPL. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,240.00 for a two-person household.

A household income of $70,000.00 is 431.03% of the 2017 FPL for a two-person household. As such, NYSOH properly determined your eldest child eligible to enroll in a Child Health Plus at full cost.

Therefore, the February 11, 2017, eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 11, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

This Decision has no effect on any subsequent redeterminations made or issued by NYSOH with respect to your eldest child's eligibility.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 31, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

At the time, your eldest child was properly determined eligible for Child Health Plus at full cost, effective March 1, 2017.
