Decision

Decision Date: June 15, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015763

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible to receive advance payments of the premium tax credit?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible for the Essential Plan?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On February 11, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NY State of Health (NYSOH), effective March 1, 2017.

Also on February 11, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the preliminary eligibility determination insofar as you and your spouse were not found eligible for financial assistance with health insurance.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On February 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the February 11, 2017 application, stating that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective March 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you and your spouse were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan, or Medicaid because your household income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On June 12, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself and your spouse.
- 3) The application that was submitted on February 11, 2017 listed annual expected household income of $67,160.00, consisting of $50,000.00 you earn from your employment and $17,160.00 your spouse earns from employment. You testified that this amount is no longer correct.
- 4) You testified that your annual expected income for 2017 is now $60,000.00.
- 5) You further testified that your household gross income for 2016 was $75,215.00 and that you and your spouse claimed $2,058.00 in business expenses deductions that year resulting in an adjusted gross income of $73,147.00.
- 6) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return. However, you testified that you believe you will be taking business expense deductions on your 2017, but you do not yet know the amount of those deductions.
- 7) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you live in Queens County.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking financial assistance for yourself and your spouse because the plans that are available to you are not affordable, and you believe that your premium payments should not be higher than 8% of your income.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer’s coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income; for annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 300% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.21% and 9.69% of the household income; for annual household income in the range of at least 300% up to 400% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is 9.69% of the household income. (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were ineligible for APTC.

The application that was submitted on February 11, 2017 listed an annual household income of $67,160.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You expect to file your 2017 tax return as married filing jointly and will claim no dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you and your spouse are in a two-person household.

APTC is available to a person who has a household income of no greater than 400% of the FPL. Since a household income of $67,160.00 is 419.23% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you and your spouse to be ineligible for APTC.

The second issue is whether you and your spouse were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $67,160.00 is 419.23% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you and your spouse to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $67,160.00 is 419.23% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,240.00 for a two-person household. Since $67,160.00 is 413.55% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you and your spouse to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the February 12, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you and your spouse were ineligible for APTC, ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, ineligible for the Essential Plan, and ineligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

During the hearing, you testified that your current household annual expected income for 2017 is $77,160.00. However, as the reported income remains above 400% of the 2016 FPL and 2017 FPL, the NYSOH Appeals Unit declines to return your case to NYSOH for a redetermination based on this updated income information.
