Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

> Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you, your spouse, and eldest child were eligible to receive up to $1,006.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC)?
> Did NYSOH properly determine that you, your spouse, and eldest child were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions (CSR)?
> Did NYSOH properly determine that you, your spouse, and eldest child were ineligible for the Essential Plan?
> Did NYSOH properly determine that your youngest child was eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium?

Procedural History

On February 11, 2017, NYSOH you submitted an application for financial assistance for your family. NYSOH rendered a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you, your spouse, and eldest child were eligible to receive up to $1,006.00 in APTC and your youngest child was eligible to enroll in a Child Health Plus plan with a $30.00 monthly premium.

Also on February 11, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to the amount of financial assistance you and your family were determined eligible to receive.

On February 12, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you, your spouse, and eldest child were eligible to receive up to $1,006.00 in APTC per month and ineligible to receive CSR and the Essential Plan. Furthermore, the notice stated that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium.

On May 16, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) According to your NYSOH account, you are seeking insurance for yourself, your spouse, and two children.

2) According to your NYSOH account, your children are [redacted]

3) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return, with the tax status of married filing jointly, and expect to claim your two children as dependents on that return.

4) According to your February 11, 2017 application, you attested to a 2017 expected income of $63,880.45. You have an expected yearly income of $42,404.45, and your spouse's expected yearly income is $21,476.00.

5) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you do not expect to claim any deductions on your 2017 federal income tax return.

6) According to your NYSOH account, you and your family reside in Onondaga County, New York.

7) You testified that, based on your living expenses, you are unable to afford the health insurance premiums.

8) You testified that you want to be found eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $24,300.00 for a four-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 300% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.21% and 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $24,300.00 for a four-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Child Health Plus

A child who meets the eligibility requirements for CHP may be eligible to receive a subsidy payment if the child resides in a household with a household income at or below 400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) (NY PHL § 2511(2)(a)(iii)).

The amount of the premium payment, if any, that must be made on behalf of a child who enrolls in a CHP plan depends upon the child's family household income (NY PHL § 2510(9)(d)). No payments are required for eligible children whose family household income is less than 160% of the FPL (NY PHL § 2510(9)(d)(1)). If the family household income is 160% or higher, premiums range from $9.00 per month to $60.00 per month (NY PHL § 2510(9)(d)).

The CHP premium is $30.00 per month for a child whose family household income is between 251% and 300% of the FPL (NY PHL § 2510(9)(d)(iv)).

In an analysis of Child Health Plus eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which was $24,600.00 for a four-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Affordability Exemption

Under some circumstances, a person may receive an exemption from paying a penalty for not purchasing health insurance coverage. Such an exemption may be granted if that person can show that he or she experienced a financial hardship or has domestic circumstances that (1) caused an unexpected increase in essential expenses that prevented that person from obtaining health coverage under a QHP; (2) would have caused the person to experience serious deprivation of food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities, as a result of the expense of purchasing health coverage under a QHP; or (3) prevented that person from obtaining coverage under a QHP (45 CFR § 155.605(a), (g)).

NY State of Health has deferred to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) on the matter of hardship exemptions (see 45 CFR § 155.505(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you, your spouse, and eldest child were eligible for APTC of up to $1,006.00 per month.

Based on the application that was submitted on February 11, 2017, you attested to an expected annual household income of $63,880.45 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You testified that you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return, jointly with your spouse, and expected to claim two dependents on that return. Therefore, you are in a four-person household for purposes of this analysis.

You reside in Onondaga County, New York, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for a couple and one dependent, under the age of 26, through NYSOH costs $1462.93 per month.

An annual income of $63,880.45 is 262.88% of the 2016 FPL for a four-person household. At 262.88% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2017 is 8.59% of income, or $457.28 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for a couple and a dependent, under the age of 26, in your county ($1,462.93 per month) minus your expected contribution ($457.28 per month), which equals $1,005.65 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $1,006.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you, your spouse, and eldest child were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $63,880.45 is 262.88%, based on a four-person household and the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you, your spouse, and eldest child to be ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you, your spouse, and eldest child were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $24,300.00 for a four-person household. Since an annual household income of $63,880.00 is 262.88% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you, your spouse, and eldest child to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined your youngest child to be eligible for Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium as of February 12, 2017.

A child is eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with financial assistance if they meet the non-financial requirements and have a household income below 400% of the FPL. Households with an income between 251% and 300% of the FPL are responsible for a $30.00 monthly Child Health Plus premium payment.

On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $24,600.00 for a four-person household. Since $63,880.45 is 259.68% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found your youngest child to be eligible for Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium payment.

Therefore, the February 12, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you, your spouse, and eldest child were eligible for up to $1,006.00 per month in APTC, not eligible for cost-sharing reductions or the Essential Plan, and your youngest child was eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium, and is AFFIRMED.

If you wish to be considered for an affordability exemption, which would exempt you from paying a penalty for not having health insurance for your entire family in 2017, you can check the Federal Marketplace website (www.healthcare.gov) for direction.
