Decision

Decision Date: June 01, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015853

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 per month premium, effective February 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On December 19, 2016, an application for financial assistance was submitted on your behalf.

On December 20, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 per month premium, effective February 1, 2017.

On February 14, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination, insofar as you were seeking eligibility for Medicaid or the Essential Plan with a $0.00 per month premium.

On May 23, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you do not expect to file taxes.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on December 19, 2016 listed annual household income of $17,916.00, consisting of $1,493.00 you receive each month in Social Security Benefits. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) You testified, and submitted documentation, that your monthly income for December 2016 was $1,493.00.
- 5) Your application states that you live in Kings County.
- 6) You testified that you have bills including rent that you think should be considered with your household income.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 per month premium, effective February 1, 2017.

The application that was submitted on December 19, 2016 listed an annual household income of $17,916.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your current expenses, which include rent and other living expenses, be considered when calculating your annual household income. Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses such as rent, utilities, cable and phone to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for financial eligibility purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $17,916.00.

You are in a one-person household and do not expect to file 2017 income taxes. You reside in Kings County.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $17,916.00 is 150.81% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 per month premium.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since $17,916.00 is 150.81% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified and submitted documentation from the Social Security Administration that shows that you began receiving $1,493.00 per month in December 2016.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. Since the documentation you provided shows that you earned $1,493.00 in December 2016 you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the December 20, 2016 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 per month premium and not eligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The December 20, 2016 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: June 01, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were properly determined eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 per month premium.

You were properly determined not eligible for Medicaid.
