NOTICE OF DISMISSAL – UNTIMELY APPEAL REQUEST

Notice Date: June 15, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015875

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

On November 16, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance

On November 17, 2016, an eligibility determination notice was issued based on your last application stating you were eligible for up to $303.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, as well as eligible for cost sharing reductions if you chose to enroll in a silver level qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017.

On November 17, 2016, an enrollment notice was issued confirming your enrollment on November 16, 2016, in a Silver level qualified health plan, for a cost of $179.93 per month after the application of advance premium tax credit, and cost sharing reductions with a start date of January 1, 2017.

On February 15, 2017, you contacted NYSOH Account Review Unit and appealed the level of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive as stated in the November 17, 2016 eligibility determination notice.

On May 24, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit.

The record indicates the following (1) you are appealing the level of financial assistance you were determined eligible for through the November 17, 2016

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY – English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

determination notice, (2) on February 15, 2017 a complaint was filed regarding the level of financial assistance you were found eligible for and the cost of the health plan you had enrolled in, (3) on February 15, 2017 a formal appeal was filed regarding the level of financial assistance you were determined eligible for, (4) there is no record of an earlier appeal request or incident filed with NYSOH regarding the level of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive based on the November 16, 2016 application.

Why Your Appeal Request Is Not Valid

Individual applicants and enrollees must request a hearing within sixty (60) days of the date of their notice of eligibility determination by NYSOH (45 CFR § 155.520(b)(2); 18 NYCRR § 358-3.5(b)(1)).

For an appeal to have been valid on the issue of the level of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive, as addressed in the November 17, 2016 notice, an appeal should have been filed by January 16, 2017. According to the credible evidence in the record, you did not contact NYSOH until February 15, 2017 to file a formal complaint and a formal appeal was not filed until that same day. This date is well beyond 60 days from the November 17, 2016 eligibility determination notice.

Therefore, there has been no valid timely appeal of the November 17, 2016 eligibility determination notice and your appeal on the issue of the level of financial assistance as stated in that notice is DISMISSED.

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

This decision does not change your current eligibility for or enrollment in a qualified health plan, or the monthly premium amount that you pay for your health plan.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. In that writing, you must explain why you think this dismissal should be vacated.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY – English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

If you ask us in writing to vacate this dismissal, NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request and send you a decision on that request.

If we deny your request to vacate this dismissal, we will tell you that in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed. No further action will be taken on it by NYSOH.
