Decision

Decision Date: June 1, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015895

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly terminate your child's enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan effective January 31, 2017 because of non-payment of premiums?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your child's enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan was effective April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 5, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On December 6, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your December 5, 2016 application, stating that your child was eligible to enroll in a full price Child Health Plus plan or Child Only Qualified Health Plan, effective January 1, 2017.

Also on December 6, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on December 5, 2016, stating that your child was enrolled in a full price Child Health Plus plan, effective January 1, 2016.

On February 10, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan disenrollment notice stating that your child was disenrolled from her Child Health Plus plan, effective January 31, 2017. The notice further stated that your child was disenrolled because her insurance bill was not paid by the payment deadline.

On February 16, 2017, you reenrolled your child in a Child Health Plus plan, effective April 1, 2017.

Also on February 16, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your child's enrollment in the Child Health Plus plan insofar as began on April 1, 2017 and not February 1, 2017.

On February 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice, based on your plan selection on February 16, 2017, confirming that your child was reenrolled in a Child Health Plus plan, effective April 1, 2017.

On May 30, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing your child's Child Health Plus plan start date.
- 2) You testified that you received a notice in the middle of January from your child's Child Health Plus plan that the February premium for your child's Child Health Plus plan had not been paid.
- 3) You testified that immediately after receiving the notice from your child's Child Health Plus plan, you logged on to your online bank account and issued a check for the February premium amount to your child's Child Health Plus plan.
- 4) You further testified that the bill payment system on your online bank account did not issue a check on time because you had to change the payment mailing address for your child's Child Health Plus plan.
- 5) You testified that you called NYSOH on February 16, 2017, after receiving the February 10, 2017 disenrollment notice from NYSOH.
- 6) You further testified, and the record reflects, that you selected a Child Health Plus plan for reenrollment on February 16, 2017.

- 7) You testified that you wanted your child's enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan to begin on February 1, 2017 because she has unpaid medical bills from the month of February 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to the Appeals Unit of NYSOH: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by the Exchange to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination; and (5) the denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505, 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Individual applicants and enrollees must request a hearing within sixty (60) days of the date of their notice of eligibility determination by NYSOH (45 CFR § 155.520(b)(2); 18 NYCRR § 358-3.5(b)(1)).

Child Health Plus Effective Date

The "period of eligibility" for Child Health Plus is "that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date," unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

"A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage" (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child's period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see e.g. State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your child's enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan effective January 31, 2017 because of non-payment of premiums.

The record indicates that your child was enrolled into her Child Health Plus plan effective January 1, 2016. On February 10, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your child's Child Health Plus coverage would be cancelled effective January 31, 2017 because a premium payment had not been received by the Child Health Plus plan.

You testified that you received a notice in mid-January 2017 that your child's Child Health Plus plan had not received the February premium payment and you immediately logged onto your online bank account and issued a check via bill pay for the February premium. You further testified that you thought that since you sent the payment that her Child Health Plus plan would not be canceled.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether your child was properly terminated from her Child Health Plus plan coverage for non-payment of premiums, effective January 31, 2017. Therefore, your appeal of the February 10, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child's re-enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective April 1, 2017.

The record reflects that your child was re-enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan on February 16, 2017.

The date on which enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since your youngest child was re-enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan on February 16, 2017, your child's enrollment properly took effect on the first day of the second month following February 2017; that is, on April 1, 2017.

Therefore, the February 17, 2017 plan enrollment notice confirming your child's enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan was effective April 1, 2017, is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the February 10, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED.

The February 17, 2017 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: June 1, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change your child's eligibility.

The effective date of your child's Child Health Plus plan is April 1, 2017.
