Decision

Decision Date: May 31, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000015962

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Was your Essential Plan properly terminated effective February 1, 2017 because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline?

Did New York State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were next enrolled in an Essential Plan with an enrollment start date of April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 23, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, with a $20.00 premium per month, effective February 1, 2017.

Also on December 23, 2016, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan with a plan enrollment start date of February 1, 2017.

On February 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Essential Plan would end on February 1, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

Also on February 17, 2017, you updated your NYSOH account, and you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you wanted the plan enrollment start date of your Essential Plan to remain as February 1, 2017.

On February 18, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 premium per month for a limited time, effective April 1, 2017.

Also on February 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that, as of February 17, 2017, you enrolled in an Essential Plan with an enrollment start date of April 1, 2017.

On May 23, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account, you were enrolled in an Essential Plan, through Fidelis Care, with an enrollment start date of February 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you never received a premium invoice from the health plan.
- 3) You testified that you found out, on or around [REDACTED], at the pharmacy that your health insurance had been cancelled.
- 4) You testified that you contacted Fidelis Care and were informed that your plan was cancelled for failing to pay your health insurance premium.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account, you re-enrolled in an Essential Plan on February 17, 2017.
- 6) You testified that you incurred approximately $3,000.00 in medical bills because you were not enrolled in health coverage for the months of February 2017 and March 2017, and want your Essential Plan coverage reinstated for those months to cover those bills.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether your enrollment in your Essential Plan was terminated effective February 1, 2017 because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

The record indicates that you were enrolled into an Essential Plan effective February 1, 2017. On February 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Essential Plan would end effective February 1, 2017 because a premium payment had not been received by the health plan.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you were properly terminated from your Essential Plan for non-payment of premiums, effective February 1, 2017. Therefore, your appeal of the February 17, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your re-enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective April 1, 2017.

The record reflects that you were re-enrolled in an Essential Plan on February 17, 2017.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you were re-enrolled in an Essential Plan on February 17, 2017, your enrollment should have taken effect on the first day of the second month following February 17, 2017; that is, on April 1, 2017.

Therefore, the February 18, 2017 plan enrollment notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective April 1, 2017, is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the February 17, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The February 18, 2017 plan enrollment notice stating that your Essential Plan was effective April 1, 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 31, 2017
