Decision

Decision Date: July 18, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016031

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you have not qualified to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period since you first submitted a completed application for coverage on February 16, 2017?

Procedural History

On February 16, 2017, NYSOH received your completed application for health insurance.

On February 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $317.00 per month, effective April 1, 2017. It further stated that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On February 21, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On May 24, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your initial, completed application for health insurance was received by NYSOH on February 16, 2017. That application listed your annual income as $24,836.00. You testified this amount was “more or less accurate.”
- 2) Your application states that you were seeking a special enrollment based on a loss of prior health coverage on December 1, 2016.
- 3) You testified that you lost your job at the end of the summer of 2016, but your benefits were extended to December 1, 2016. You testified that you were currently in [REDACTED] with your former employer and that you had expected your benefits to be continued for several more months due to time you had accrued while working.
- 4) You testified you went to a Navigator in December 2016 and began an application with NYSOH but you did not submit the application at that time, because you still believed your benefits would be extended.
- 5) Your account confirms the application started on December 6, 2016 was not submitted until February 16, 2017.
- 6) On May 9, 2017, NYSOH received supporting documentation you submitted including your handwritten letter detailing the issue of the alleged benefits owed by your former employer [REDACTED] and a letter from your union president indicating the reason you did not apply for health insurance through NYSOH during open enrollment was because of the “uncertainty surrounding the continuing eligibility for medical coverage” through your former employer.
- 7) You testified that since filing your application on February 16, 2017 there have been no major changes to your household.
- 8) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you from enrolling in a qualified health plan during the open enrollment period.
- 9) NYSOH denied your request for a special enrollment period.
- 10) You testified you are seeking a special enrollment period to enroll in a qualified health plan outside the open enrollment period for 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)
 - (i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you have not qualified to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period since you first submitted a completed application for coverage on February 16, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. Although your account confirms an application for health insurance was started on your behalf on December 6, 2016, within the open enrollment period for 2017, it was not completed and submitted until February 16, 2017, outside of the open enrollment period. On February 17, 2017 NYSOH issued a notice stating that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, as did several subsequent notices.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered through NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

You testified that your previous insurance coverage through your employer ended on December 1, 2016. Loss of insurance coverage outside of NYSOH is considered a triggering life event.

Pursuant to the above cited regulations, when a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual has 60 days from the date of that event to select a qualified health plan. However, 60 days from December 1, 2016 was January 30, 2017; this triggering event would not have qualified you to select a health plan outside the open enrollment period for 2017.

You testified, and submitted documentation supporting your contention, that you did not submit an application for health insurance to NYSOH until February 16, 2017 because you believed you were due additional benefits from your former employer. However, there is no authority under the governing regulations that allow for a special enrollment period due to your belief, whether reasonable or not, that you would not need health insurance through NYSOH until the open enrollment period had ended.

You testified there have been no changes in your immediate household since applying for health insurance that may have otherwise qualified you for a special enrollment period. Additionally, you testified you did you rely on any misrepresentation by NYSOH that prevented you from enrolling in a health plan sooner. Accordingly, the credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period, under the regulations.

Therefore, NYSOH's February 17, 2017 eligibility determination stating that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
