Decision

Decision Date: June 01, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016037

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective March 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On January 24, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your application for health insurance.

On January 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive an advanced premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $268.00 per month and were eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled into a silver level qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2017.

On January 25, 2017, NYOSH issued a plan enrollment notice, based on your January 24, 2017 plan selection, confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017 and your application of APTC, effective February 1, 2017.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.

On February 3, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive APTC of up to $268.00 per month and cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled into a silver level qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2017. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On February 22, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible to change enrollment in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On May 24, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. During the hearing, [REDACTED], acted as your authorized representative and assisted you with your testimony. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On January 24, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance.
- 2) You testified that you enrolled in a qualified health plan, on January 24, 2017, and shortly after you were informed that your doctors would no longer accept the qualified health plan you were enrolled in.
- 3) Your authorized representative testified that the first time you contacted NYSOH after realizing that your doctors no longer accepted your qualified health plan was on [REDACTED].
- 4) Your authorized representative testified that on February 2, 2017 the NYSOH representative stated that she would attempt to change your qualified health plan. The authorized representative further testified that the NYSOH representative told you it was an IT problem and submitted incident ticket [REDACTED].
- 5) Your authorized representative testified that you contacted NYSOH multiple other times after this first call and were told that you should be able to change plans given your circumstances.
- 6) Your authorized representative stated that you were ultimately denied a special enrollment period.
- 7) You testified that since filing your application on January 24, 2017 there have been no other major changes to your household.

- 8) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you in enrolling in a different qualified health plan during open enrollment period.
- 9) You testified that you have extensive medical conditions that require monitoring, and as a result, request that you be granted a special enrollment period in order to change your qualified health plan to one in which your doctors accept.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective March 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On January 24, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance and enrolled in a qualified health plan that same day. On February 2, 2017 you contacted NYSOH and requested to change your health plan.

On February 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

The record indicates that you enrolled in a qualified health plan of your choice on January 24, 2017. However, you testified that shortly after enrolling in a qualified health plan, that you were informed that your doctors were no longer accepting that qualified health plan. You further testified that you have extensive medical conditions which require constant monitoring by your doctors.

Your authorized representative testified that you contacted NYSOH on February 2, 2017 and were told you should be able to change your enrollment in a qualified health plan given your circumstances and you relied upon that information. However, this misinformation was given after open enrollment period had ended.

Further, this misinformation did not prevent you from enrolling in a qualified health plan during the open enrollment period. Therefore, it did not have any effect on your enrollment or non-enrollment into a plan during the open enrollment period. Therefore, the misinformation is not a triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's February 3, 2017 eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 3, 2017 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.
