Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse did not qualify to change your qualified health plan (QHP) outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 21, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible for a tax credit up to $391.00 per month, effective as of February 1, 2017.

On December 21, 2016, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that as of December 20, 2016, you and your spouse were enrolled in a bronze-level QHP with an enrollment start date of February 1, 2017.

On February 2, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

On February 3, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, in relevant part, that you and your spouse did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

Also on February 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that you and your spouse were enrolled in a bronze-level QHP with an enrollment start date of February 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On February 22, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you and your spouse did not qualify for a special enrollment period.

On May 30, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Testimony was taken during the hearing, and the record was left open to allow you to submit your U.S. Certificate of Naturalization to NYSOH's Appeals Unit.

On June 2, 2017, you uploaded your U.S. Certificate of Naturalization to your NYSOH account (Document [REDACTED]), which was made part of the record as "Appellant Exhibit A." The record is now complete and closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account, you and your spouse were enrolled in a bronze-level QHP on December 20, 2016 with a start date of February 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you logged onto your NYSOH account during the last week of January 2017 to change your health plan. Based on what you saw on the computer screen, you believed you had enrolled you and your spouse in platinum-level QHP.
- 3) You testified that you logged into your account in the beginning of February 2017 and discovered that your and your spouse's QHP had not been changed.
- 4) You testified that, after discovering that your QHP had not been changed, you contacted NYSOH. You were informed by a representative that you were unable to change health plans because the open enrollment period was closed.
- 5) You testified you never received any notice from NYSOH acknowledging any change in your QHP.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account, your enrollment was not changed at the end of January 2017, and a notice acknowledging a change in your QHP has not been uploaded to your NYSOH account.
- 7) You testified that you became a Naturalized Citizen at the end of May 2017.

- 8) On June 2, 2017, you uploaded your U.S. Certificate of Naturalization to your account. The certificate reflects that you were admitted as a citizen of the United States on [REDACTED] (see Appellant Exhibit A).
- 9) You testified you want to be able to enroll in a platinum-level QHP, prospectively.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by

HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse did not qualify to change your QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On December 20, 2016 during that open enrollment period, you and your spouse enrolled in a bronze-level QHP with an enrollment start date of February 1, 2017.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, an individual must qualify for a SEP in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

You testified that you logged in your NYSOH account during the last week of January 2017 to change your health plan and enrolled yourself and your spouse in platinum-level QHP. However, when you logged into your account in the beginning of February 2017, you discovered that you and your spouse's QHP had not been changed. After discovering that your QHP had not been changed, you contacted NYSOH and was informed that you were unable to change health plans because the open enrollment period was over.

Your NYSOH account reflects that a change of enrollment did not occur at the end of January 2017, and a notice has not been issued verifying any change to your enrollment during that period of time.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

The record does not reflect that NYSOH, by action or inaction, made an error or misrepresented information when you attempting to change your QHP.

You testified that you became a Naturalized Citizen at the end of May 2017. You uploaded your U.S. Certificate of Naturalization to your account stating that you were admitted as a citizen of the United States on [REDACTED].

A special enrollment period is permissible when a qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present.

The record reflects that you did in fact experience a change in citizenship status. However, this triggering event can only be applied to individuals who are newly eligible for enrollment in a QHP. Since you and your spouse were already enrolled in a QHP, this triggering event is not applicable in your situation.

Since the record is devoid of any triggering event that would grant you or your spouse a special enrollment period, the February 3, 2017, eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 3, 2017, eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

This decision has no effect on any subsequent eligibility determinations or enrollments made or corresponding notices issued by NYSOH.

Effective Date of this Decision: June 14, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You and your spouse did not qualify for a special enrollment period.
