Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) outside of the 2017 open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 19, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a QHP through NYSOH at full cost, effective January 1, 2017. You were not eligible to receive financial assistance through NYSOH because you did not respond to a renewal notice dated October 19, 2016 and did not renew your application for financial assistance within the required timeframe.

On January 31, 2017, you selected a QHP for enrollment.

On February 1, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation, confirming your enrollment in a full cost QHP, effective March 1, 2017.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice, stating that your enrollment in your full cost QHP was ending effective March 1, 2017, because on February 1, 2017 you asked NYSOH to end your coverage.

On February 23, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll in a QHP outside of the 2017 open enrollment period.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 4, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost through NYSOH, but that you did not qualify to enroll in a health plan outside of the 2017 open enrollment period, effective April 1, 2017.

On June 8, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On January 31, 2017, you selected a QHP for enrollment.
- 2) You testified that, prior to choosing a plan, you had spoken to a health center that you utilize, and were given a name of health plans that they accept.
- 3) You testified that when you selected a QHP on January 31, 2017, you mistakenly selected a QHP that the health center does not accept.
- 4) You testified that, when you realized your mistake, you logged back into your NYSOH account on February 1, 2017 and tried to change your enrollment to a different QHP.
- 5) You testified that you are not sure what happened, but that, instead of changing plans, you ended up canceling your enrollment in your QHP.
- 6) You testified that you think the system asked if you wanted to cancel your plan, and you said "yes," thinking that you would then be selecting another plan.
- 7) You testified that you did not realize that you were not going to be able to select another plan, and that your intent was never to cancel your coverage, as you would rather have coverage in a plan that your provider does not accept than not have coverage at all.
- 8) You testified that you immediately called NYSOH and explained the situation, and that the person you spoke with seemed confident that you would be able to reenroll.
- 9) You testified that the NYSOH agent you spoke with told you to call back in two weeks, which you did. However, when you called back, you were informed that your only option was to file an appeal.

10) You testified that since selecting your plan on January 31, 2017, there have been no other major changes to your household.

11) You testified that you are looking to enroll in a health plan for the remainder of the 2017 coverage year.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a QHP and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a QHP, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
  - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a QHP because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the QHP in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to a new QHP as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a QHP or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a QHP; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a QHP (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On January 31, 2017, you selected a QHP for enrollment, and your selection was confirmed in an enrollment confirmation notice dated February 1, 2017. However, on February 1, 2017, you deleted this enrollment, and, on February 23, 2017, you filed an appeal regarding the fact that you were not able to re-enroll in coverage.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event. You testified that there have been no changes in your household since you updated your account on January 31, 2017.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

You testified that, when you realized that you had enrolled in a plan that your provider did not accept, you logged into your NYSOH account on February 1, 2017 and tried to change your plan, but instead ended up deleting your enrollment in your original plan. You testified that you contacted NYSOH immediately and were informed that it should not be a problem for you to re-enroll in coverage, and that you should call back in a couple of weeks. However, when you called back, you were told that you could not enroll, and that you needed to file an appeal.

Although the information that you were given was not correct, it is irrelevant in this case because you were given this information on February 1, 2017, after open enrollment had already closed. In other words, your inability to enroll in a plan on February 1, 2017 was not caused by the information given by NYSOH, but was caused by the fact that you were trying to change/enroll in coverage outside of the open enrollment period, and did not have a qualifying life event that would allow you to do so.

Since the record does not indicate that NYSOH, by action or inaction, made an error or misrepresented information that caused your non-enrollment, a special enrollment period cannot be granted.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's March 4, 2017 eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The March 4, 2017 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: June 20, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
