Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On September 11, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating, in relevant part, that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective as of October 1, 2016. The notice directed you to provide additional proof of immigration status by December 9, 2016.

Also on September 11, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming that as of September 10, 2016, you and your spouse were enrolled in an Essential Plan with an enrollment start date of October 1, 2016.

On December 15, 2016, your NYSOH account was updated.

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your and your spouse's coverage would end on November 30, 2016, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

Also on December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were no longer eligible for health insurance through NYSOH effective January 1, 2017, because you did not provide immigration status documentation.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 31, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

On February 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible for up to $613.00 monthly of advance payments of premium tax credit and cost-sharing reductions, effective March 1, 2017.

Also on February 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice stating, in relevant part, that you and your spouse's health coverage in a QHP would not begin until you a plan was chosen.

On February 27, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your and your spouse's eligibility for a special enrollment period.

On February 28, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice stating, in relevant part, that you and your spouse did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On June 12, 2017, you had a telephone hearing, with the assistance of [REDACTED] interpreter [REDACTED] with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Testimony was taken during the hearing, and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account, you and your spouse's Essential Plan was terminated November 30, 2016, because you did not pay your monthly premium by the payment deadline.
- 2) You testified that you found out that your health insurance was cancelled at a medical appointment in October or November 2016.
- 3) You testified that you went to the [REDACTED] in November 2016, and was informed that your insurance had been cancelled for nonpayment of premiums.
- 4) You testified that you contacted the health insurance company on or around December 8, 2016, and was informed that you needed to pay two months of premiums to activate your and your spouse's coverage.
- 5) You testified that in early January 2017 you paid the January and February 2017 health insurance premiums to the health insurance company to activate your and your spouse's coverage.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 6) You testified that you never contacted NYSOH to reenroll you and your spouse in an Essential Plan after the coverage was terminated for nonpayment of premiums.
- 7) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, an application was submitted on January 31, 2017, and your family's eligibility for financial assistance was redetermined.
- 8) You testified that you went to the [REDACTED] on January 31, 2017, and was informed that you and your spouse were no longer qualified for the Essential Plan.
- 9) You testified that you and your spouse did not enroll in health insurance on January 31, 2017, because the health plans were too expensive.
- 10) You testified you want you and your spouse to be found eligible to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.

(ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.

(iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, an individual must qualify for a SEP in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

The record reflects that you and your spouse's Essential Plan was terminated November 30, 2016, because you did not pay your monthly premium by the payment deadline. You testified that you contacted the health insurance company on or around December 8, 2016, and was informed that you needed to pay two months of premiums in advance to activate your and your spouse's coverage. Furthermore, in early January 2017 you paid the January and February 2017 health insurance premiums to activate your and your spouse's coverage.

The record reflects that an application for financial assistance was submitted on January 31, 2017, and you were informed that you and your spouse were no longer eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan. You testified that you and your spouse did not enroll in a health plan on January 31, 2017, because the health insurance plans were too expensive.

The record supports that you and your spouse had the opportunity to enroll in a QHP during the open enrollment period. Therefore, the reason you and your spouse were not enrolled in a QHP during the open enrollment period was not the result of misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, agent of NYSOH, or its instrumentalities.

The February 28, 2017, enrollment notice stating that you and your spouse did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
