Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

> Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost, effective February 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On January 15, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility redetermination stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective February 1, 2016.

On February 1, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that based on your plan selection on January 31, 2016, that your enrollment start date for the Essential Plan was March 1, 2016.

On January 9, 2017, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance.

On January 10, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost, effective February 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for APTC and CSR because you said you would not be filing a tax return or were married and filing separately, or you did not file a tax return for an earlier year during which you received APTC.

Also on January 10, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your coverage in the Essential Plan was ending January 31, 2017.

On January 19, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a silver-level QHP with a monthly premium of $453.55 per month, effective February 1, 2017.

On February 27, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you were found not eligible for financial assistance in 2017.

On June 7, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) You testified, and your NYSOH application reflects that you are applying for health insurance for yourself.

2) In your January 9, 2017 application, you attested to an expected annual income of $32,000.00.

3) On January 10, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were not eligible for financial assistance because you said you would not be filing a tax return or were married and filing separately, or APTC had been paid to your health insurance company to reduce your premium costs in a prior year and NYSOH was unable to tell if a federal tax return was filed for that year.

4) You testified that you had requested a filing extension for your 2015 federal income tax return, and the return was timely filed later that year during October.

5) You testified and your NYSOH account reflects that you received APTC toward the cost of your QHP in 2015.

6) On February 27, 2017, you uploaded a tax return transcript issued by the IRS for your 2015 tax return. The transcript indicates that the IRS received your 2015 federal income tax return on October 17, 2016.

7) You testified that you live in [redacted].

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

NYSOH may not authorize APTC when it was paid on behalf of the tax filer or it's spouse, for a year which the tax data would be utilized for verification of household income and size, and that tax filer and his spouse did not file a tax return for that year (45 CFR § 155.305(f)(4)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income for purposes of determining their eligibility for APTC (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any changes in eligibility to APTC effective as of the first day of the month following the date of the notice (45 § 155.310(f), 45 CFR § 155.330(e), (f)(1)(i)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective February 1, 2017.

On January 9, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance with an increased attested expected annual income of $32,000.00.

On January 10, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were not eligible for financial assistance because you said you would not be filing a tax return or were married and filing separately, or APTC had been paid to your health insurance company to reduce your premium costs in a prior year and NYSOH was unable to tell if a federal tax return was filed for that year.

In your case, you stated that you were single and would be filing a tax return. Therefore, it must be concluded that NYSOH was unable to confirm that tax return had been filed for a year during which you had received APTC.

However, on February 27, 2017, you uploaded a tax return transcript issued by the IRS for your 2015 tax return. The transcript indicates that the IRS received your 2015 federal income tax return on October 17, 2016.

Therefore, at the time of the January 9, 2017 application you had in fact filed your 2015 tax return and the data sources that NYSOH had relied on to make its determination were incorrect.

Since the January 10, 2017 eligibility determination notice is not supported by the record, it must be RESCINDED.

Since the January 10, 2017 eligibility determination notice is no longer supported by the record as developed during the hearing, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to rerun your application to ascertain your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance as of January 9, 2017 for a one-person household with an expected annual income of $32,000.00, for an individual living in [redacted]. NYSOH is directed to refer to Document [redacted] for verification that you filed your 2015 income tax return.
