Decision

Decision Date: July 3, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016339

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly terminate your Essential Plan for non-payment of premium effective, January 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $234.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective April 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On December 6, 2016, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance.

On December 7, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on your last application stating you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan starting January 1, 2017. The notice stated the income in your application was listed as $26,440.00.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on December 7, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in the Essential Plan 1 on December 6, 2016 for a cost of $20.00 per month starting January 1, 2017.

On January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice terminating your Essential Plan effective January 1, 2017. The notice stated your coverage was ending because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On February 28, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to receive up to $234.00 per month in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective April 1, 2017.

Also on February 28, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the determination that you were eligible for APTC and not Essential Plan.

On March 1, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the February 28, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $234.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective April 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limits for that program. The income amount you listed in your application was $34,996.01.

On June 6, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open up to 15 days, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

As of June 21, 2017, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of head of household. You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.

- 3) The application that was submitted on February 28, 2017 listed annual household income of $34,996.01, consisting of income you earn from your employment. You testified you were not sure if this was correct.
- 4) You did not provide supporting documentation showing your monthly income for January and February 2017.
- 5) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 6) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED].
- 7) You testified that you have bills including rent, cable, and car payment that you think should be deducted from your household income.
- 8) You testified that you paid your premiums to your Essential Plan for January and February, 2017, and that you were told you did not have to make a payment by a health plan representative until March, 2017.
- 9) You were disenrolled from your Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2017.
- 10) On February 28, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to reenroll into a qualified health plan.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two -person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your Essential Plan for non-payment of premium effective, January 1, 2017.

On December 6, 2016, you were enrolled in an Essential Plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $20.00, effective January 1, 2017.

You testified that you paid your premiums to your Essential Plan for January and February, 2017, and that you were told you did not have to make a payment by a health plan representative until March, 2017.

On January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective January 1, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the January 14, 2017 cancellation notice for non-payment is DISMISSED.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $234.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on February 28, 2017 listed an annual household income of $34,996.01, and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your current expenses, which include rent, electricity and other living expenses, be considered when calculating your annual household income. Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses such as rent, utilities, cable and phone to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $34,996.01.

You are in a two-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as head of household and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED], where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $440.31 per month.

An annual income of $34,996.01 is 218.45% of the 2016 Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for a two-person household. At 218.45% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 7.08% of income, or $206.47 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($440.31 per month) minus your expected contribution ($206.47 per month), which equals $233.84 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $234.00 per month in APTC.

The third issue is whether you were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $34,996.01 is 218.45% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The fourth issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan, effective April 1, 2017.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $34,996.01 is 218.45% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the March 1, 2017, eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $234.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, April 1, 2017 it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the January 14, 2017 cancellation notice for non-payment is DISMISSED.
