Decision

Decision Date: August 3, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016396

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine you were eligible to receive up to $326.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective April 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Did NY State of Health properly determine you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On March 1, 2017, an updated application for financial assistance with health insurance was submitted on your behalf. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating you were eligible to receive up to $326.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective April 1, 2017. You were also eligible for cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan.

Also on March 1, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that determination insofar as you were not eligible for an increased level of financial assistance.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the March 1, 2017 application, stating you were eligible to receive up to $326.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective April 1, 2017. You were also eligible for cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan. The notice also indicated you were not eligible for Medicaid or the Essential Plan, because the annual income amount you provided was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On June 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open to allow you to submit supporting documents.

On July 12, 2017, NYSOH received the requested documentation and it was incorporated into the record as Appellant's Exhibit #1. The record closed thereafter.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You were enrolled in the Essential Plan in 2016. The March 4, 2016 application upon which your eligibility was determined, listed annual income of $17,127.00.
- 2) On March 1, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and an updated application was submitted on your behalf increasing your reported annual income to be $24,000.00. You testified this amount was accurate.
- 3) The application indicated you would file your 2017 tax return with a tax filing status of single and you would claim no dependents on that tax return. You testified this information was accurate.
- 4) Based on the information provided in March 1, 2017 application, NYSOH determined you eligible to receive APTC of up to $326.00 per month, effective April 1, 2017.
- 5) You appealed that determination insofar as you were not eligible for an increased level of financial assistance.
- 6) You testified you earn $12.00 per hour and that you usually work 40 hour per week, but you sometime work extra hours.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 7) You testified, and your application indicates, you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 8) Your application indicates you live in [REDACTED]
- 9) On July 12, 2017, NYSOH Appeals Unit received the following income documentation:
 - a. Weekly paystub with check date of February 24, 2017 in the gross amount of $480.00.
 - b. Weekly paystub with check date of March 17, 2017 in the gross amount of $480.00.
 - c. Weekly paystub with check date of March 31, 2017 in the gross amount of $480.00.
 - d. Weekly paystub with check date of April 7, 2017 in the gross amount of $489.90 including $9.90 of overtime pay.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined you were eligible for an APTC of up to $326.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on March 1, 2017 listed an annual household income of $24,000.00. You testified the application was accurate and the subject eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in Queens County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $465.46 per month.

An annual income of $24,000.00 is 202.02% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 202.02% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 6.5% of income, or $130.00 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($130.00 per month), which equals $326.46 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $326.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $24,000.00 is 202.02% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level health plan.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $24,000.00 is 202.02% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $24,000.00 is 199% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

Your March 1, 2017 application listed your annual household income as $24,000.00. You testified this was accurate.

Although you submitted four weekly paystubs purported to establish the amount of gross income you received in the month of March 2017, only two of those paystubs are for check dates in the month of March 2017. However, all the paystubs submitted indicate your weekly gross income was $480.00, with the exception of the April 7, 2017 paystub, which included an additional $9.90 of overtime pay. Accordingly, given the totality of the evidence including the documentation submitted, the information in your application, and your testimony, it is concluded that you earned, at least, $480.00 for each of the five weeks in March 2017. Thus, it is concluded you earned, at least, $2,400.00 in the month of March 2017.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. Since the evidence establishes that you earned, at least, $2,400.00 in March 2017 you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the March 2, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $326.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, ineligible for the Essential Plan and ineligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
