Decision

Decision Date: July 03, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016443

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $208.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective April 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions (CSR)?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On March 1, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance through NYSOH. NYSOH rendered a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $208.00 in APTC, effective April 1, 2017.

Also on March 1, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you disagreed with the amount of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $208.00 in APTC per month and ineligible to receive CSR and the Essential Plan.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 7, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, with a $20.00 premium per month for a limited time, effective April 1, 2017. The notice stated that you have been granted Aid to Continue until a decision is made on your appeal.

On June 20, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you are seeking insurance for yourself.

According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return as married filing jointly with your spouse, and do not expect to claim any dependents on that return.

According to your March 1, 2017 application, you attested to a 2017 expected income of $41,200.00, consisting of your expected yearly income of $20,800.00, and your spouse's expected yearly income is $20,400.00.

According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you do not expect to claim any deductions on your 2017 federal income tax return.

According to your NYSOH account, you and your spouse reside in [REDACTED], New York.

You testified that you want to be found eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 300% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.21% and 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Affordability Exemption

Under some circumstances, a person may receive an exemption from paying a penalty for not purchasing health insurance coverage. Such an exemption may be granted if that person can show that he or she experienced a financial hardship or has domestic circumstances that (1) caused an unexpected increase in essential expenses that prevented that person from obtaining health coverage under a QHP; (2) would have caused the person to experience serious deprivation of food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities, as a result of the expense of purchasing health coverage under a QHP; or (3) prevented that person from obtaining coverage under a QHP (45 CFR § 155.605(a), (g)).

NY State of Health has deferred to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) on the matter of hardship exemptions (see 45 CFR § 155.505(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $208.00 of APTC per month.

Based on the application that was submitted on March 1, 2017, you attested to an expected annual household income of $41,200.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You testified that you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return as married filing jointly with your spouse, and do not expect to claim any dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you are in a two-person household for purposes of the following analysis.

You reside in ██████████, New York, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $496.62 per month.

An annual income of $41,200.00 is 257.18% of the 2016 FPL for a two-person household. At 257.16% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2017 is 8.42% of income, or $289.09 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($496.62 per month) minus your expected contribution ($289.09 per month), which equals $207.53 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $208.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $41,200.00 is 257.18%, based on a two-person household and the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $41,200.00 is 257.18% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Therefore, the March 2, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $208.00 per month in APTC, and ineligible for CSR and the Essential Plan, and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The March 2, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 03, 2017
