Decision

Decision Date: July 19, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016494

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly terminate your, your spouse, and your youngest two children's qualified health plan for non-payment of premium, effective January 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you, your spouse, and your two youngest children do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you, your spouse, and your oldest two children were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $721.00 per month, effective January 1, 2017. Your youngest child was eligible to enroll in a Child Health Plus plan, with a $30.00 per month premium, effective January 1, 2017.

Also on December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you, your spouse, and your two oldest children were enrolled into a gold level qualified health plan that would start January 1, 2017. Your youngest child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan that would start January 1, 2017.

On December 22, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your oldest [REDACTED] coverage in the gold level qualified health plan would end as of January 31, 2017, because the plan was only available to individuals who were 26 years or younger.

On January 20, 2017, NYSOH received your application for health insurance and your request to enroll your youngest child into the gold level qualified health plan with you, your spouse, and your middle child.

On January 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you, your spouse, and your youngest two children were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $721.00 per month, effective March 1, 2017.

Also on January 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you, your spouse, and your youngest two children were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2017.

On February 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of disenrollment, stating that coverage for you, your spouse, and your youngest two children would end on March 1, 2017 due to failure to pay premiums.

On March 2, 2017, you attempted to reenroll into a qualified health plan, but were unable to.

On March 2, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On March 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice to confirm your appeal request from the previous day. That notice stated that the reason for your appeal was "Health plan reinstatement of plan due to non-payment. Consumer is without coverage."

On June 19, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open up to July 3, 2017, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

On June 19, 2017, NYSOH received documentation and it was entered into the record as Appellant's Exhibit [REDACTED]. No other documentation was received and the record was closed on July 3, 2017.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to enroll your family into a health plan through NYSOH.

- 2) On January 20, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance with the assistance of an application counselor. You, your spouse, and your youngest two children were enrolled into a health plan that day.
- 3) On February 18, 2017, NYSOH notified you that you were disenrolled from your health plan for failure to pay premiums.
- 4) You testified that you paid your initial premium payment on January 18, 2017, which was one week late.
- 5) You testified that your application counselor re-ran your application and you were advised that everything would be resolved.
- 6) You testified that since filing your application on January 20, 2017 there have been no other major changes to your household.
- 7) You submitted a photocopy of your certified application counselor's business card and your notes regarding premium payment confirmation.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and "consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process" (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). "De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case" (45 CFR § 155.500).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your, your spouse, and your youngest two children's qualified health plan for non-payment of premium effective, January 1, 2017.

You were enrolled in a qualified health plan for the 2017 coverage year effective January 1, 2017. You testified that you paid your initial payment to the qualified health plan on January 18, 2017, one week late.

On February 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you, your spouse, and your youngest two children were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective January 1, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you, your spouse, and your youngest two children were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the February 18, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you, your spouse, and your youngest two children do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to enroll into a health plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony along with the March 3, 2017 appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was "Health plan reinstatement of plan due to non-payment", permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your special enrollment request.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On March 2, 2017, you submitted a request to reenroll in a qualified health plan.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

In the present case, there is no evidence in the record to establish grounds for a special enrollment period. You testified that there have been no changes to your household in 2017.

Though you did lose health coverage as a result of the February 18, 2017 disenrollment notice, the loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums which NYSOH considers a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience a triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing.

Therefore, the March 2, 2017 verbal denial of a special enrollment period is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the February 18, 2017, disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The March 2, 2017 verbal denial of a special enrollment period is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 19, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You, your spouse, and your youngest two children do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
