Decision

Decision Date: July 7, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016771

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective December 31, 2016?

Procedural History

On December 15, 2015, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan and to receive up to $302.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, as well as cost-sharing reductions, both effective January 1, 2016.

Also on December 15, 2015, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming you and your spouse's enrollment in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2016.

On November 20, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were not qualified to enroll through NYSOH because you no longer wanted to receive coverage.

On November 27, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice indicating that you and your spouse's coverage in your qualified health plan would end effective December 31, 2016.

On March 10, 2017, you contacted the NYSOH Account Review Unit and appealed the date you and your spouse were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, requesting the disenrollment be made effective November 30, 2016.

On June 16, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you and your spouse had been enrolled in your qualified health plan since January 1, 2016.
- 2) You testified that you wanted to end your qualified health plan because the premium was too expensive.
- 3) You testified that on November 19, 2016 you contacted NYSOH to disenroll yourself and your spouse from your qualified health plan through NYSOH.
- 4) You testified that you paid all your monthly premiums to your qualified health plan for 2016 but that you did not pay the premium for the month of December 2016.
- 5) You testified that you are seeking retroactive disenrollment from you and your spouse's qualified health plan effective November 30, 2016.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Termination of a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to terminate his or her coverage with a qualified health plan coverage, with appropriate notice to the NYSOH or qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(1)(i)).

For enrollee-initiated terminations, the last day of coverage is either:

- 1) The termination date specified by the enrollee, if the enrollee provides reasonable notice (at least 14 days before the requested termination date);
- 2) Fourteen days after the enrollee requests the termination, if they do not provide reasonable notice; or
- 3) On a date on or after the date the enrollee requests the termination, if the enrollee's qualified health plan issuer and the enrollee agree to such a date

(45 CFR § 155.430(d)(2)(i)-(iii)).

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to retroactively terminate or cancel their enrollment in a qualified health plan if:

- 1) The enrollee demonstrates that they attempted to terminate their coverage and experienced a technical error that did not allow the coverage to be terminated, and requests retroactive termination within 60 days after they discovered the technical error.
- 2) The enrollment in the qualified health plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or HHS, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Such enrollee must request cancellation within 60 days of discovering the unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous enrollment.
- 3) The enrollee was enrolled in a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by any third party, including third parties who have no connection with the Exchange, and requests cancellation within 60 days of discovering of the enrollment.

(45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(iv)(A-C)).

NYSOH permits a qualified health plan to terminate an individual's coverage if (1) the enrollee is no longer eligible for coverage or (2) non-payment of the premiums by the enrollee (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(i)-(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective December 31, 2016.

On December 15, 2015, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan with an advance premium tax credit in the amount of $302.00 per month with cost sharing reductions, effective January 1, 2016. You and your spouse subsequently enrolled into a qualified health plan.

On November 19, 2016, you called NYSOH to end your coverage, and on November 27, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice indicating you and your spouse would be disenrolled from your qualified health plan effective December 31, 2016.

You testified that you are seeking retroactive disenrollment from your qualified health plan effective November 30, 2016.

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to be retroactively disenroll from their qualified health plan if the enrollee demonstrates that there was a technical error that should have allowed them to terminate coverage earlier, or if their enrollment in the plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities, or the enrollee was enrolled into a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by a third party.

There is no indication in the record that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the December 15, 2015 enrollment notice was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous, nor was your enrollment in a qualified health plan the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Furthermore, there is no indication that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the December 15, 2016 enrollment notice was without your knowledge or consent. Therefore, there is no basis to find that NYSOH must permit you to retroactively terminate or cancel your enrollment in a qualified health plan.

The record reflects that on November 19, 2016, you contacted NYSOH and requested that you and your spouse be disenrolled from your qualified health plan as you no longer wanted to remain enrolled.

Enrollees must be allowed to terminate their coverage with a qualified health plan at the date they specify if they provide reasonable notice to NYSOH or to their health plan. Reasonable notice is defined as at least 14 days prior to the requested termination date.

Because you called on November 19, 2016, there was not enough time, according to regulations, to end your coverage by November 30, 2016, and NYSOH properly terminated you and your spouse's insurance coverage with your qualified health plan effective December 31, 2016.

Since you do not qualify to be retroactively disenrolled from your coverage and you did not provide reasonable notice to NYSOH for coverage to have ended on November 30, 2016, NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse's disenrollment in your qualified health plan was effective December 31, 2016.

Therefore, the November 27, 2016 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The November 27, 2016 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 7, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change your disenrollment date. You and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan ended as of December 31, 2016.
