Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

> Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit or cost-sharing reductions, effective April 1, 2017?
> Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan or Medicaid as of April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On February 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice informing you it was time to renew your coverage for the upcoming policy year. The notice stated that you could not be enrolled in your current health plan for the next coverage year and must select a different health plan between February 16, 2017 and March 15, 2017 to continue your coverage.

On February 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your coverage with Essential Plan 1 would end March 31, 2017.

On March 13, 2017, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination, based on your updated application of that date, and found you eligible to purchase a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost, effective April 1, 2017.

Also on March 13, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you were no longer eligible for financial assistance through NYSOH.

On March 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective April 1, 2017, needed to confirm your health plan selection by May 12, 2017, and you could not get coverage for 2017 if you missed this date. It further stated that you do not qualify for Medicaid, Child Health Plus or the Essential Plan because you do not meet the income limits or other eligibility standards for these programs, and do not qualify for an advance premium tax credit (APTC) because your application states that you are married but would file taxes separately from your spouse.

On June 30, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) According to your NYSOH account, on your March 13, 2017 application for financial assistance, you indicated that you were married and intended to file your 2017 taxes as single. You will claim no dependents on your tax return. You testified that this information was correct.

2) According to your NYSOH account, your income is listed at $33,000.00 in earnings. You testified this amount was correct.

3) Youi testified that you are not legally separated nor divorced from your spouse, but plan on filing for divorce.

4) You testified that you have not spoken to your spouse in three years and are unsure of [redacted] whereabouts.

5) Your application states that you live in [redacted], New York.

6) You are seeking to get health insurance with financial assistance through NYSOH because you are currently without it.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC is available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable poverty level (FPL) (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

Additionally, a tax filer who is married must file a joint return with his or her spouse in order to qualify for APTC (45 CFR §§ 155.305(f), 155.310(d); 26 CFR § 1.36B-2).

However, an individual will be treated as not married at the close of the taxable year if the individual

1) Is legally separated from his/her spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, or

2) Meets all of the following criteria:

    a. files a separate return from his/her spouse and maintains his/her household as the primary home for a qualifying child;

    b. pays more than one half of the cost of keeping up his/her home for the tax year; and

    c. does not have his/her spouse as a member of the household during the last 6 months of the tax year

(26 USC § 7703).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household and $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household and $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you are not eligible for APTC and cost-sharing reductions, effective April 1, 2017.

In the eligibility determination notice issued on March 14, 2017, NYSOH found you ineligible for APTC because you indicated that you were married but did not plan to file a joint federal income tax return.

To qualify for APTC, a person who is married must either file taxes jointly with his or her spouse or qualify as “not married” at the close of the tax year.

According to the information in the record and your testimony at the hearing, you were still married to your spouse and had not obtained a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance as of your March 14, 2017 application for financial assistance or as of the June 30, 2017 hearing.

There is an exception to this rule, as noted above, that allows a tax filer to be treated as “not married” at the close of a taxable year, making the tax filer eligible for APTC.

In addition, there are other exceptions to this rule that are based on policy. If you claim "head of household" status on your tax return or if you're a victim of domestic violence or an abandoned spouse. It is unclear from the record, as developed, if you meet any of these exceptions. If you believe you do, call NY State of Health to see if you qualify for these exceptions.

You testified that you have not obtained a legal separation from your spouse or a divorce decree, but intend on doing so at some point. Therefore, the record does not support a finding that you meet the necessary requirements for that exception at the time of your application.

Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined in the March 14, 2017 eligibility determination notice that you were not eligible for APTC due to your tax filing status.

Cost-sharing reductions are available only to those who meet the requirements for APTC. Since you did not qualify for APTC, NYSOH correctly found that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for the Essential Plan.

The application that was submitted on March 13, 2017 listed an annual household income of $33,000.00 in earned income. The eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. This is because you expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $33,000.00 is 277.78% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The same would be true using a two-person household with an applicable FPL of $16,020.00. Since an annual household income of $33,000.00 is 206% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you to be ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $33,000.00 is 273.63% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

The same would be true using the applicable 2017 FPL for a two-person household of $16,240.00. Since $33,000.00 is 203.20% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month for a one-person household and $1,868.00 for a two-person household. Since your reported income of $33,000.00 equals $2,750.00 in monthly income, you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since NYSOH correctly determined that you are not eligible for APTC because you will not be filing your taxes as married filing jointly, are not eligible for cost-sharing reductions because you are not eligible for APTC and are not eligible for the Essential Plan or Medicaid because you are over-income for these programs, the March 14, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.
