Decision

Decision Date: July 3, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016861

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Was your qualified health plan (QHP) properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums, effective January 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 17, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive advance payments of the premium tax credit but at $0.00 per month for a limited time, effective as of January 1, 2017.

Also on December 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that as of December 16, 2016, you were enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

On February 13, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your QHP enrollment would end effective January 1, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On March 15, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your QHP was discontinued for nonpayment of premiums and your eligibility for a special enrollment period was denied.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 28, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you were enrolled in an Empire Blue Cross Blue Shield (Empire) bronze-level QHP, effective January 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified you accessed the QHP's website and paid the January 2017 health insurance premium.
- 3) You testified that you were never notified by your QHP or your bank that the payment for the January 2017 health insurance was not processed.
- 4) You testified you realized there was an issue when you accessed your QHP's website to pay the February 2017 premium, and your payment could not be processed.
- 5) You testified that there was discrepancy with funds that were withdrawn from your bank account in January 2017. This discrepancy resulted in there being insufficient funds in your bank account to pay the January 2017 premium.
- 6) You testified you were notified by Empire that your health plan had been cancelled for nonpayment of health insurance premiums.
- 7) You testified that you were notified by NYSOH that you were ineligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.
- 8) According to the "Appeal Summary" in the Evidence Packet, that was created in anticipation of your hearing with NYSOH's Appeals Unit, you are "requesting reinstatement with Empire" (see Document [REDACTED] uploaded 5/26/2017).
- 9) There is no evidence in the record to show that there has been a change in your household size or income.
- 10) According to your NYSOH account, at all times relevant, you resided in [REDACTED] New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and "consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process" (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). "De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case" (45 CFR § 155.500).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.

(ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.

(iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether your QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premium, effective January 1, 2017.

The record reflects that you were enrolled in a QHP effective January 1, 2017. However, on February 13, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your QHP enrollment would end effective January 1, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the February 13, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Empire may be able to help you with your request for coverage. If you have not already been assisted with your current coverage issue, please contact Empire at 1-855-748-1806.

In addition, since your issue concerns a health insurer and/or payment, reimbursement, coverage, benefits, rates and premiums, you can contact NY Department of Financial Services at their Consumer Hotline at (800) 342-3736 (Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM); or locally to (212) 480-6400; or you can file a complaint at <http://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumer/fileacomplaint.htm>

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are seeking to have coverage in your QHP reinstated through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain any notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of a special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of an SEP does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony, along with the "Appeal Summary" in the Evidence Packet stating that were "requesting reinstatement with Empire," permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your request for a SEP (see Document [REDACTED])

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued. Therefore, the merits of this issue will be addressed.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

The loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums. NYSOH considers nonpayment or late payment of premium to be a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage. Therefore, it cannot qualify as a triggering event for purposes of granting a special enrollment period.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience any other triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH properly denied you the ability to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

Decision

Your appeal of the February 13, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue

NYSOH properly denied you the ability to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 3, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
