Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

> Did NY State of Health properly determine that your enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective March 31, 2017?

Procedural History

On January 24, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $220.00 in advanced premium tax credits per month, effective March 1, 2017.

On February 7, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2017.

On February 22, 2017, the income information in your NYSOH account was updated. Also on this date, you uploaded one document to your NYSOH account.

On February 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the information you listed in your application did not match what NYSOH received from state and federal data sources. This notice further directed you to submit additional income documentation to confirm the information in your application by March 9, 2017.

Also on February 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that you were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, effective March 31, 2017.

On March 1, 2017, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance with health insurance. Also on this date, you uploaded one document to your NYSOH account.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the information you listed in your application did not match what NYSOH received from state and federal data sources. This notice further directed you to submit additional income documentation to confirm the information listed in your application by March 9, 2017.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH verified the documentation you submitted on March 1, 2017 and a new application was submitted on your behalf.

On March 3, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2017.

On March 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment confirmation notice confirming your enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective April 1, 2017.

On March 16, 2017, you contacted the NYSOH Account Review Unit and appealed the date you were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, requesting the disenrollment be made effective February 28, 2017.

On July 5, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) You were enrolled in a qualified health plan through NYSOH and that your coverage was effective as of March 1, 2017.

2) You testified that you paid premium to your health plan for the month you were enrolled into coverage.

3) The record indicates that you updated your application on February 22, 2017 and March 1, 2017, and you were found eligible for Medicaid on March 2, 2017.

4) You testified that you requested that your qualified health plan be terminated on February 22, 2017.

5) You testified that you are seeking an earlier disenrollment date because you had Medicaid coverage in March 2017 when you were still enrolled in your qualified health plan.

6) You testified you did not use your insurance through your qualified health plan during the month of March 2017.

7) You testified that you are concerned about the tax implications that you may face due to receiving advanced premium tax credits during a month that you had Medicaid.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Termination of a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to terminate his or her coverage with a qualified health plan coverage, with appropriate notice to the NYSOH or qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(1)(i)).

If an enrollee is newly eligible for Medicaid, the last day of coverage for the qualified health plan is the day before the Medicaid coverage begins (45 CFR § 155.430(d)(2)(iv)).

For enrollee-initiated terminations, the last day of coverage is either:

1) The termination date specified by the enrollee, if the enrollee provides reasonable notice (at least 14 days before the requested termination date);

2) Fourteen days after the enrollee requests the termination, if they do not provide reasonable notice; or

3) On a date on or after the date the enrollee requests the termination, if the enrollee's qualified health plan issuer and the enrollee agree to such a date

(45 CFR § 155.430(d)(2)(i)-(iii)).

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to retroactively terminate or cancel their enrollment in a qualified health plan if:

1) The enrollee demonstrates that they attempted to terminate their coverage and experienced a technical error that did not allow the coverage to be terminated, and requests retroactive termination within 60 days after they discovered the technical error.

2) The enrollment in the qualified health plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or HHS, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Such enrollee must request cancellation within 60 days of discovering the unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous enrollment.

3) The enrollee was enrolled in a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by any third party, including third parties who have no connection with the Exchange, and requests cancellation within 60 days of discovering of the enrollment.

(45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(iv)(A-C)).

NYSOH permits a qualified health plan to terminate an individual's coverage if (1) the enrollee is no longer eligible for coverage or (2) non-payment of the premiums by the enrollee (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(i)-(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective March 31, 2017.

On January 24, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to eligible to receive up to $220.00 in advanced premium tax credits per month, effective March 1, 2017. You subsequently enrolled into a qualified health plan on February 7, 2017.

You testified that you are seeking retroactive disenrollment from your qualified health plan effective March 1, 2017.

On February 22, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to update your application for financial assistance, and uploaded a letter, dated February 22, 2017, from your employer to your NYSOH account stating that your last day of employment was February 14, 2017. On February 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the information you entered into your application did not match state and federal databases, and asked that you submit additional income documentation by March 9, 2017. Also on February 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your qualified health would end effective March 31, 2017.

On March 1, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance, and you uploaded a letter, dated February 22, 2017, from your former employer stating that your last day of employment was February 14, 2017.

NYSOH validated your documentation on March 2, 2017, and you were found eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2017. You testified that you are seeking an earlier disenrollment date because you had Medicaid coverage in March 2017 when you were still enrolled in your qualified health plan.

If an enrollee is newly eligible for Medicaid, the last day of coverage through their qualified health plan is the day before the Medicaid coverage begins. Since you were determined eligible for Medicaid on March 2, 2017, under the regulations, your qualified health plan should have terminated that day. However, NYSOH does not allow for prorated or partial premiums based on the amount of days in a month you were enrolled in a qualified health plan and as such your plan was terminated at the end of the calendar month in which you became eligible for Medicaid.

Therefore, NYSOH properly determined that your plan terminated as of March 31, 2017, and NYSOH's February 23, 2017, disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 23, 2017 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 13, 2017
