Decision

Decision Date: August 28, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016929

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $220.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective March 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were no longer eligible for the Essential Plan?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On December 2, 2016, you submitted an application for financial assistance.

On December 3, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017, based upon your attested annual earnings of $28,800.00. However, that notice also advised you that you needed to submit income documentation by March 2, 2017 to support the income claimed in that application, or you might lose your insurance or receive less financial assistance.

On January 14, 2017, income documentation was uploaded to your account.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 25, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $220.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2017, based on annual earnings of $42,100.08. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan or for Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On March 17, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the eligibility determination; you requested greater financial assistance. You also requested that your prior coverage continue pending the outcome of this appeal.

On March 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming that you had been enrolled in an Essential Plan for a limited time, pending the outcome of your appeal.

On July 19, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 2) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 3) You are seeking insurance only for yourself.
- 4) The application that was submitted on December 2, 2016 listed annual household income of $28,800.00, consisting solely of your income. You testified that this amount represented your former earnings; in November 2016 you were promoted, and your annual gross earnings rose to $42,000.00. You also testified that your spouse received $413.00 per month in disability benefits; you were not sure if this was a gross or net amount.
- 5) You testified that the November 2016 and December 2016 pay stubs you submitted are an accurate reflection of your current income. You are currently paid a gross amount of $1,754.17 twice per month, on the 15th and last day of each month.
- 6) You testified and your application confirms that you live in [REDACTED].

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 7) You provided documentation to show that your spouse has multiple medical conditions and you have monthly expenses, so you live paycheck to paycheck and cannot afford to pay for insurance.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $220.00 per month in APTC.

Although the application that was submitted on December 2, 2016 listed an annual household income of $28,800.00, the income documentation you subsequently submitted did not support that amount.

Instead, the documentation submitted shows that you individually earn $3,508.34 every month, or $42,100.08 per year.

You are in a three-person household, because you expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED], where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

If only your income is considered, an annual income of $42,100.08 is 208.83% of the 2016 FPL for a three-person household. At 208.83% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 6.74% of income, or $236.46 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($236.46 per month), which equals $220.00 per month. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $220.00 per month in APTC.

PLEASE NOTE, however, that this finding does not take into account any income received by the other members of your three-member household that you may not have included on your application, potentially including Social Security benefits.

The second issue is whether you were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $42,100.08 is 208.83% of the applicable 2016 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost-sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were no longer eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. Since an annual household income of $42,100.08 is 208.83% of the applicable 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. Since $42,100.08 is 208.83% of the applicable 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the applicable FPL, which is $2,421.90 per month. Since the documentation, you provided shows that you earned $3,508.34 in December 2016, you did not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the January 25, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $220.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, ineligible for the Essential Plan and ineligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in the submitted documentation was correct. However, you asked that your current expenses, which include rent, electricity and other living expenses, in addition to your spouse's medical condition, be considered when calculating your annual household income.

Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses such as rent, utilities, cable, and phone to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, your household income cannot be adjusted by these amounts.

Decision

The January 25, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: August 28, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are eligible to receive up to $220.00 in APTC. IMPORTANT: If you have not disclosed all your household earnings, you may not be entitled to this level of APTC. Any discrepancy would then need to be reconciled on your tax return for 2017.

You are eligible for cost-sharing reductions. IMPORTANT: Cost-sharing reductions can lower your deductibles, copayments, co-insurance, and total out-of-pocket spending – but only if you enroll in a silver level plan through NY State of Health.

You are ineligible for the Essential Plan and Medicaid.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:

- By calling the Customer Service Center at 1-800-318-2596
- By mail at:
Health Insurance Marketplace
Attn: Appeals
465 Industrial Blvd.
