Decision

Decision Date: July 20, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000016992

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Does the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health (NYSOH) have the authority to review the end of coverage due to nonpayment of premiums for you and your spouse, effective February 28, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you and your spouse's re-enrollment in an Essential Plan was effective no earlier than May 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On May 24, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2016.

Also on May 24, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that you and your spouse were enrolled in an Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2016. That notice further stated you must pay the monthly premium to start and keep your coverage.

On March 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that you and your spouse's Essential Plan coverage was ending February 28, 2017 due to non-payment of a premium.

On March 20, 2017, you updated your NYSOH account and selected a plan for enrollment. That day a preliminary determination was prepared with regard to that application stating that you and your spouse were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 20, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of you and your spouse's enrollment in the Essential insofar as it did not begin March 1, 2017.

On March 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your March 20, 2017 application, stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on March 20, 2017, stating that you and your spouse were enrolled in an Essential Plan, and that your plan would start May 1, 2017.

On June 23, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and the record reflects, that you and your spouse enrolled in an Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2016.
- 2) You testified that your debit card was stolen in February 2017. You testified that your debit card account was being used to automatically pay your insurance premiums. You testified that you closed this account resulting in your March 2017 premium payment not being paid to your insurance carrier.
- 3) You testified that you updated your NYSOH account and selected an Essential Plan for you and your spouse on March 20, 2017.
- 4) You testified that you and your spouse were redetermined eligible for the Essential Plan, effective May 1, 2017.
- 5) You testified that you and your spouse re-enrolled in your Essential Plan effective May 1, 2017.
- 6) You testified that you and your spouse were without health insurance coverage from March 2017 through April 2017.

- 7) You testified that you wanted you and your spouse's enrollment in an Essential Plan to begin on March 1, 2017, because you and your spouse incurred medical bills during March and April 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Valid Appeal Requests

An applicant has the right to appeal to the Appeals Unit of NYSOH: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination; and (4) the denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505, 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Individual applicants and enrollees must request a hearing within 60 days of the date of their notice of eligibility determination by NYSOH (45 CFR § 155.520(b)(2); 18 NYCRR § 358-3.5(b)(1)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether the Appeals Unit of NYSOH has the authority to review the end of coverage due to nonpayment of premiums for you and your spouse, effective February 28, 2017.

The Appeals Unit of NYSOH only has the authority to review issues related to an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; a failure by the Exchange to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination; the denial of a request for a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review the end of coverage due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits of whether you and your spouse were properly terminated from your coverage due to non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of you and your spouse's Essential Plan termination date is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse's re-enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective April 1, 2017.

You testified, and the record indicates, that you updated you and your spouse's NYSOH application on March 20, 2017. As a result, you and your spouse were found eligible for the Essential Plan as of May 1, 2017 and enrolled into a plan that day.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

On March 20, 2017, you selected an Essential Plan, so you and your spouse's enrollment properly took effect on the first day of the following month; that is, on May 1, 2017.

Therefore, the March 21, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice stating that you and your spouse's enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective May 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.

Decision

The March 21, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 20, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility
