Decision

Decision Date: August 28, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017122

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On January 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice, stating that your enrollment in your qualified health plan was terminated, effective January 1, 2017, because a premium payment had not been received by the health plan.

On February 6, 2017, February 24, 2017, and March 7, 2017, you reapplied for health insurance and financial assistance, and attempted to enroll in a plan.

In response to these applications, on February 7, 2017, February 25, 2017, and March 8, 2017, NYSOH issued eligibility determination notices, stating that you were not eligible to enroll in a plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On March 22, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determinations insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On July 13, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing. The record is now closed.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On February 6, 2017, February 24, 2017, and March 7, 2017, you submitted applications for health insurance, and you attempted to enroll in a qualified health plan.
- 2) Each of these applications stated that you were seeking a special enrollment because you had lost or would be losing your health insurance coverage.
- 3) You testified that you lost your prior health insurance coverage through NYSOH for a purported nonpayment of premium, but that it was because you had never received an invoice from the plan and you did not know where to send the payment to.
- 4) Your plan advised you that it would be willing to reinstate you into coverage, if NYSOH “released” the account, because it understood that you did not know where to send the payment to.
- 5) You testified that one NYSOH representative told you your health plan needed to submit a form to NYSOH, but your plan had no idea what that form would be.
- 6) You testified that there have been no other major changes to your household since you were disenrolled from coverage.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH’s Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)
 - (i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

NYSOH's Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review the end of enrollment due to purported non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in a health plan or change to another plan offered through NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

In the present case, there is no evidence in the record to establish a basis for a special enrollment period. You testified that there have been no changes to your household in 2017 since you were disenrolled.

Although you did lose health coverage because of the January 16, 2017 disenrollment, the loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums which NYSOH considers a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience a triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing.

Therefore, the February 7, 2017, February 25, 2017, and March 8, 2017 eligibility determination notices, to the extent they denied you a special enrollment period, were correct and are AFFIRMED.

However, you testified that your plan was willing to reenroll you in coverage if NYSOH would “release” your account. A NYSOH representative stated that your plan needed to submit a form, and your coverage could be reinstated. Therefore, your case is being RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in obtaining the necessary form for your plan to submit and reenroll you in coverage.

Decision

The February 7, 2017, February 25, 2017, and March 8, 2017 eligibility determination notices are AFFIRMED.

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time. However, because your plan has stated that it was willing to reenroll you in coverage, your case is being RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in obtaining the necessary form for your plan to submit and reenroll you in coverage.

Effective Date of this Decision: August 28, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time. However, because you plan has stated that it was willing to reenroll you in coverage, your case is being returned to NYSOH to assist you in obtaining the necessary form for your plan to submit and reenroll you in coverage.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

Summary

The February 7, 2017, February 25, 2017, and March 8, 2017 eligibility determination notices are AFFIRMED.

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time. However, because your plan has stated that it was willing to reenroll you in coverage, your case is being RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in obtaining the necessary form for your plan to submit and reenroll you in coverage.
