Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $271.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective April 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On January 10, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium each for a limited time, effective February 1, 2017. Your coverage under the Essential Plan was conditional pending receipt of income documentation by April 9, 2017. You enrolled in an Essential Plan on that same date, with such coverage beginning on February 1, 2017.

On February 28, 2017, NYSOH received a letter issued by your employer, [REDACTED], dated February 27, 2017, stating that you have been an employee since February 20, 2006 and that you received an hourly wage of $16.00 over a 40-hour work week.

On March 8, 2017, redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance.

On March 9, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $271.00 and, if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions (CSR), effective April 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

On March 22, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were seeking to be found eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan.

On June 29, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of head of household. You will claim your child as your sole dependent on that tax return.
- 2) At the time of your January 9, 2017 application, you were seeking insurance for both yourself and your child. This election was duplicated in the redetermination of eligibility performed by NYSOH on March 8, 2017.
- 3) The redetermination of eligibility performed by NYSOH on March 8, 2017 listed an annual household income of $33,280.00, consisting solely of income you anticipate receiving from your employer during 2017. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) On February 28, 2017, you provided to NYSOH a letter issued by your employer, [REDACTED], dated February 27, 2017, stating that you have been an employee since February 20, 2006 and that you received an hourly wage of $16.00 for a 40-hour work week.
- 5) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 6) You live in [REDACTED], New York.

- 7) You testified that the health plans available through NYSOH were unaffordable, even after applying the tax credits available to you. You were seeking to be redetermined eligible for the Essential Plan.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $271.00 per month, effective April 1, 2017.

The redetermination of your eligibility by NYSOH, based on documentation you had submitted on February 28, 2017, was performed on March 8, 2017 and listed an annual household income of $33,280.00 ($16.00 x 40 hours x 52 weeks) consisting solely of income you anticipate receiving from your employer during 2017. The eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a two-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim your child as a dependent on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED], where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $33,280.00 is 207.74% of the 2016 FPL for a two-person household. At 207.74% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 6.71% of income, or $185.97 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($185.97 per month), which equals $270.49 per month. Therefore, rounding up to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $271.00 per month in APTC, effective April 1, 2017.

The second issue is whether you were properly found eligible for CSR, effective April 1, 2017.

CSR is available to a person who has a household income of greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $33,280.00 is 207.74% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for CSR.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $33,280.00 is 207.74% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the March 9, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for an APTC of up to $271.00 per month, eligible for CSR, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
