Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your children's eligibility for their Child Health Plus plan ended effective February 28, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 6, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your family's application for financial assistance with health insurance. Also on December 6, 2016, you uploaded one document to your NYSOH account.

On December 7, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your December 6, 2016 application, stating that your children were eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium, for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017. This notice directed you to submit household income documentation for your children by February 4, 2017.

Also on December 7, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on December 6, 2016, stating that your children were enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan, and that this enrollment would start January 1, 2017.

On December 20, 2016, NYSOH invalidated the income documentation you uploaded to your account on December 6, 2016.

On December 21, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the documentation you submitted did not confirm the information in your application and asked that you submit additional proof of income to verify the information in your account by February 4, 2017.

No additional income documentation was received by NYSOH by February 4, 2017. Subsequently, on February 10, 2017, NYSOH ran an application for financial assistance for health insurance on your family's behalf.

On February 11, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that your children were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH and were not eligible for a special enrollment period, effective March 1, 2017. This notice stated that this was because NYSOH had not received the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application.

Also on February 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan disenrollment notice stating that your children were disenrolled from their Child Health Plus plans, effective February 28, 2017.

On March 23, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that your children were eligible for a Child Health Plus plan with a $30.00 monthly premium and you selected a plan for your children's enrollment, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 23, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your children's Child Health Plus plan insofar as it did not begin April 1, 2017.

On March 24, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination, based on your March 23, 2017 application, stating that your children were eligible for a Child Health Plus plan with a $30.00 monthly premium, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 24, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice, based on your March 23, 2017 plan selections, confirming your children's enrollment in their Child Health Plus plans with a $30.00 monthly premium, effective May 1, 2017.

On June 28, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing only your children's enrollment start dates.
- 2) You submitted an application for health insurance on December 6, 2016.
- 3) You testified that you uploaded your 2015 federal tax return on December 6, 2016, but was unaware that it had to be signed.
- 4) You testified that you did not receive the December 21, 2016 notice stating that you needed to provide additional documentation by February 4, 2017.
- 5) You testified that you were not aware your children had been disenrolled from their Child Health Plus plan until right before you updated your NYSOH account on March 23, 2017.
- 6) You testified, and the record reflects, that you receive all of your notice from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 7) No notices that were sent to you at the mailing address listed in your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 8) You submitted an updated application to NYSOH for financial assistance on March 23, 2017.
- 9) You testified, and the record reflects, that you enrolled your children into a Child Health Plus plan on March 23, 2017.
- 10) You testified that you would like your children to have continuous coverage with their Child Health Plus plans and you would like your children to not have any gaps in coverage.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Child Health Plus

A child who meets the eligibility requirements for Child Health Plus may be eligible to receive a subsidy payment if the child resides in a household with a household income at or below 400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) (New York Public Health Law (NY PHL) § 2511(2)(a)(iii)).

To be eligible for CHP, the child:

- Must be under 19 years of age;
- Must be a New York State Resident;
- Must not have other health insurance coverage; and
- Must not be eligible for, or enrolled in, Medicaid

(NY PHL § 2511(2)(a)-(e)).

For all individuals, whose income is needed to calculate the household's eligibility, NYSOH must request data that will allow NYSOH to verify the household's income (45 CFR §155.320(c)(1)(i)). If NYSOH cannot verify the income information required to determine eligibility they must attempt to resolve the inconsistency including giving the applicant the opportunity to submit satisfactory documentary evidence (45 CFR §155.315(f)).

NYSOH is required to provide proper written notice to an applicant of any decision effecting an enrollee's Child Health Plus eligibility (42 CFR § 457.340(e)). When CHP coverage is denied, suspended, or terminated NYSOH must provide sufficient notice to enable the child's parent or caretaker relative to take appropriate actions to allow CHP coverage to continue without interruption (42 CFR § 457.340(e)(2); 42 CFR § 457.1130(a)(3)). Notice is considered received five days after the date on the notice, unless the applicant demonstrates that he or she did not receive the notice within the five-day period (45 CFR § 155.315(c)(3), (f)(2)(i)).

The State of New York has provided that a child's period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your children's eligibility for and enrollment in Child Health Plus terminated effective February 28, 2017.

NYSOH is required to determine whether individuals are eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH, and must confirm, among other things, an applicant's household income.

If NYSOH cannot verify the income information required to determine eligibility they must attempt to resolve the inconsistency including giving the applicant the opportunity to submit satisfactory documentary evidence.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The record indicates that NYSOH received your application for financial assistance with health insurance on December 6, 2016. On December 7, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that your children were eligible for Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium, for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017. This notice directed you to submit household income documentation for your children by February 4, 2017.

You testified, and the record reflects, that you also uploaded your 2015 federal tax return on December 6, 2016.

On December 20, 2016, NYSOH invalidated the 2015 federal tax return that you submitted on December 6, 2016 because it was not signed or dated. Subsequently, NYSOH issued a notice, on December 21, 2016, stating that the documentation you submitted did not confirm the information listed in your application and to submit additional income documentation by February 4, 2017 or the financial assistance your children were receiving may end.

No additional income documentation was received by NYSOH by February 4, 2017. Subsequently, on February 10, 2017, NYSOH ran an application for financial assistance with health insurance on your family's behalf.

On February 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your children's coverage in their Child Health Plus plan would end effective February 28, 2017 because they were no longer eligible to be enrolled in their Child Health Plus plans. According to the eligibility determination issued on that day, this was because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your December 6, 2016 application.

When NYSOH denies, terminates, or suspends a child's Child Health Plus coverage, they are required to provide sufficient notice so that a child's parent is able to take action to prevent a gap in coverage for the child. Notice is considered received five days after the date on the notice. In this case, the notice formally disenrolling your children from her Child Health Plus plan was dated February 11, 2017. Therefore, the notice terminating your child's enrollment would be considered received as of February 16, 2017.

When changes are made to an individual's application after the 15th of any month, NYSOH must make the redetermination that results from a change effective the first day of the next following month. Since you would have received NYSOH's notice terminating your child's Child Health Plus eligibility after the 15th of the month, any changes you would have made to your account to prevent a gap in coverage would not have been effective until April 1, 2017.

Since NYSOH failed to provide you with sufficient notice that would have allowed you to take action in order to prevent a gap in Child Health Plus coverage for your child for the month of March 2017, the February 11, 2017 disenrollment notice is MODIFIED to state that your children were disenrolled from their Child Health Plus plans, effective March 31, 2017.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your children into their Child Health Plus plan for the month of March 2017.

However, since the February 11, 2017 disenrollment notice did provide sufficient time to allow you to update your NYSOH account in a manner that would have prevented a gap in your children's coverage in their Child Health Plus plans for the month of April 2017, and you failed to update your NYSOH account until March 23, 2017, the March 24, 2017 eligibility determination and plan enrollment notices are AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 11, 2017 disenrollment notice is MODIFIED to state that your children were disenrolled from their Child Health Plus plan, effective March 31, 2017 and not February 28, 2017.
