Decision

Decision Date: July 26, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017198

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly disenroll your spouse from his Essential Plan with Healthfirst for non-payment of premium, effective January 31, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your spouse's enrollment in an Essential Plan with UnitedHealthcare was effective April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On June 17, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your June 16, 2016 application, stating that your spouse was eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective August 1, 2016.

Also on June 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on June 16, 2016, stating that your spouse was enrolled in an Essential Plan with Healthfirst vision and dental for a cost of $46.56 per month, and that his plan would start June 1, 2016.

On March 1, 2017, you updated your spouse's enrollment.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice stating your spouse's enrollment in his Essential Plan ends on March 31, 2017. The notice stated this was because on March 1, 2017, you asked NYSOH to end his coverage.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your spouse's enrollment on March 1, 2017 in an Essential Plan with UnitedHealthcare Community Plan for $20.00 per month, effective April 1, 2017.

On March 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating your Essential Plan would end effective January 31, 2017. The notice stated this was because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On March 23, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your spouse's enrollment in the Essential Plan with UnitedHealthcare insofar as it did not begin March 1, 2017.

On July 6, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your spouse's enrollment in an Essential Plan with Healthfirst started June 1, 2016.
- 2) You updated your spouse's enrollment on March 1, 2017, and enrolled your spouse in an Essential Plan with UnitedHealthcare, for an April 1, 2017 start date. You testified this was correct.
- 3) You testified you were unaware your spouse was disenrolled from his Essential Plan with Healthfirst effective January 31, 2017 until February 20, 2017.
- 4) You testified you believe you paid the wrong premium balance based on what your health plan provided to you.
- 5) You testified that you wanted your spouse's enrollment in an Essential Plan to begin on March 1, 2017 because [REDACTED] has outstanding medical bills of approximately $1,600.00 which were not covered due to [REDACTED]

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your spouse's enrollment in the Essential Plan with Healthfirst for non-payment of premium effective, January 31, 2017.

Your spouse was enrolled in coverage with an Essential Plan with Healthfirst with a monthly premium of $46.56 per month, effective June 1, 2016.

On March 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating your Essential Plan would end effective January 31, 2017. The notice stated this was because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline. The record indicates that your spouse was also cancelled from [REDACTED] Essential Plan as of January 31, 2017 as well for non-payment.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not your spouse was properly terminated from ■ health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the March 4, 2017 cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your spouse's enrollment in ■ Essential Plan with UnitedHealthcare was effective April 1, 2017.

You testified, and the record indicates, that you submitted an enrollment for your spouse on March 1, 2017 through UnitedHealthcare.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

On March 1, 2017, you selected an Essential Plan with UnitedHealthcare for your spouse, so ■ enrollment properly took effect on the first day of the first month following March, 2017; that is, on April 1, 2017.

Therefore, the March 2, 2017, enrollment confirmation notice stating that your spouse's enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective April 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the March 4, 2017 cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The March 2, 2017, enrollment confirmation notice stating your spouse's enrollment in an Essential Plan with UnitedHealthcare was correct and is AFFIRMED.
