Decision

Decision Date: July 10, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017240

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly terminate your qualified health plan for non-payment of premium, effective February 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On February 1, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your application for health insurance.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $607.00 per month, effective March 1, 2017.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you and your spouse were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective February 1, 2017.

On February 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating that your and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan was terminated, effective February 1, 2017, because a premium payment had not been received by the health plan.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On February 27, 2017, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On February 28, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $614.00 per month, effective April 1, 2017. It further stated that you and your spouse do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On March 23, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination insofar as you and your spouse were not eligible to change health plans outside of the open enrollment period.

On June 30, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you had issued when applying for health insurance on January 31, 2017, and was unable to finish your application until February 1, 2017. You testified that NYSOH allowed you and your spouse to enroll into coverage after January 31, 2017.
- 2) You and your spouse were enrolled in a qualified health plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $708.58, effective February 1, 2017.
- 3) You testified that your eligibility stated that you and your spouse were eligible for a qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2017; therefore, you were under the impression that you were not enrolled into coverage until March 1, 2017.
- 4) You and your spouse were disenrolled from coverage, effective February 1, 2017.
- 5) You testified that you received the letter from NYSOH on February 21, 2017 stating that you and your spouse had been disenrolled from you qualified health plan, but still had not received any bill from your health plan about your premium payments.
- 6) You testified that in early March 2017, you received the premium bill from your health plan. You testified that the bill was dated February 3, 2017, but that the envelope stated that postage was paid on February 28, 2017, and accepted by the Post Office on March 1, 2017.

- 7) You testified that after receiving the premium bill in the mail, you called both your health plan and NYSOH.
- 8) You testified that your health plan stated that you and your spouse could enroll back into coverage with them if you paid the past premium payments for March, April and May.
- 9) You testified that you do not feel that you should be responsible for premium payments for months when you and your spouse did not have access to the health plan's coverage.
- 10) You testified that you also do not trust the health plan, and would like to change your enrollment to a different qualified health plan because of the billing problem.
- 11) On February 27, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to change your and your spouse's enrollment into a different qualified health plan.
- 12) You testified that since filing your application on February 1, 2017 there have been no other major changes to your household.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
  - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
  - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your and your spouse's qualified health plan for non-payment of premium effective, February 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On February 1, 2017, you and your spouse were enrolled in a qualified health plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $708.58, effective February 1, 2017.

On February 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you and your spouse were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective February 1, 2017.

You testified that you received a bill from your health plan in March 2017. You further testified that the bill was dated February 3, 2017, but that the envelope stated that postage was paid on February 28, 2017, and accepted by the Post Office on March 1, 2017. You testified that your health plan told you that you and your spouse could reenroll into coverage provided you paid the past premium payments for March, April and May. You testified that you do not feel that you should have to pay the premium or months that you and your spouse did not have access to the health plan.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the February 21, 2017 cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective April 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On February 27, 2017, you submitted a request to change your and your spouse's enrollment into a different qualified health plan.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

In the present case, there is no evidence in the record to establish grounds for a special enrollment period. You testified that there have been no changes to your household in 2017.

Though you and your spouse did lose health coverage as a result of the February 21, 2017 disenrollment, the loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums which NYSOH considers a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you or your spouse did not experience a triggering event that would qualify you and your spouse for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing.

Therefore, the February 28, 2017 eligibility determination, to the extent it denied you and your spouse a special enrollment period, was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 21, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The February 28, 2017 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 10, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You and your spouse do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
