NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017261

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for and enrollment in your Essential Plan was effective May 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On January 20, 2016, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On January 21, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your January 20, 2016 application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective March 1, 2016.

Also on January 21, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, confirming your selection of an Essential Plan, with an enrollment start date of March 1, 2016.

On January 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by February 15, 2017 or you might lose the financial assistance you were currently receiving.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

No updates were received by February 15, 2017 and NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.

On February 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective March 1, 2017. The notice stated that you were not eligible for financial assistance because you did not respond to the renewal notice.

Also on February 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your Essential Plan was terminated, effective February 28, 2017.

On March 24, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan and you selected a plan for enrollment.

Also on March 24, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your Essential Plan, insofar as you were not covered for the months of March and April 2017.

On March 25, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your selection of your Essential Plan, with a plan enrollment start date of May 1, 2017.

On June 29, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You were determined eligible for the Essential Plan on January 20, 2016, with an effective date of March 1, 2016.
- 2) You testified that you receive your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 3) You testified that you did not receive any notices in the mail telling you that you needed to update your application in order to renew your Essential Plan eligibility.

- 4) No notices sent to you at the mailing address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 5) You testified that you did not know that you needed to update your account until you were filling your prescriptions at the end of March 2017.
- 6) The record reflects that on March 24, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.
- 7) You reenrolled into an Essential Plan on March 24, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking to have coverage in the Essential Plan for March 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan Renewal

In general, NYSOH will review Essential Plan eligibility no more frequently than once every 12 months from the effective date of eligibility as long as enrollees are under age 65, not enrolled in minimum essential coverage, remain state residents, and do not have any changes in circumstances. An individual enrolled in the Essential Plan shall have his or her coverage continued until the end of the 12 month period, provided he or she does not lose eligibility by reason of citizenship status, lack of state residence, failure to provide a valid social security number, providing inaccurate information that would affect eligibility when requesting or renewing health coverage, failure to make the applicable premium payment, or changes in circumstances (42 CFR § 600.340(a); 42 CFR § 600.320(d); NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3) and (4)(d)); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, pp. 8 and 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

NYSOH must provide an individual with the annual redetermination notice, including the projected eligibility for coverage and financial assistance, and must require the qualified individual to report any changes within 30 days (42 CFR § 600.340(e)). Once the 30-day period has lapsed, NYSOH must issue a redetermination as provided by the notice, with consideration given to any updates that may have been provided by the individual (42 CFR § 600.345; NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); 45 CFR § 155.335(g); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 17, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for and enrollment in your Essential Plan was effective May 1, 2017.

You were originally found eligible for the Essential Plan effective March 1, 2016.

Generally, NYSOH will redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for the Essential Plan once every 12 months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. NYSOH's January 4, 2017 renewal notice stated that there was not enough information to determine whether you were eligible to continue your financial assistance for health insurance, and that you needed to supply additional information by February 15, 2017, or your financial assistance might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, you were terminated from your Essential Plan effective February 28, 2017.

You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, the record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you of your annual renewal and that information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated in order to ensure your enrollment in your health plan and eligibility for financial assistance would continue.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The record shows that on March 24, 2017 you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in an Essential Plan.

The date on which the Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you selected your Essential Plan on March 24, 2017, it must take effect on the first day of the next following after March; that is, on May 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's March 25, 2017 eligibility determination notice and enrollment confirmation notice are AFFIRMED because they properly began your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan on May 1, 2017.
