Decision

Decision Date: July 19, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017294

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $250.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective May 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Procedural History

On March 24, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance.

Also on March 24, 2017, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination finding you eligible to receive up to $250.00 per month in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 24, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the amount of APTC you were determined eligible to receive per month.

On March 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice that was consistent with its May 24, 2017 preliminary eligibility determination.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 30, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for only yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on March 24, 2017 listed annual household income of $34,968.00, consisting of your spouse's annual Social Security Retirement benefits of $19,068.00 and annual pension income of $15,900.00. You testified that these amounts were correct.
- 4) You testified that you are unemployed and your spouse's monthly income is $1,589.00 in Social Security Retirement benefits and $1,325.00 in pension, which equals monthly income of $2,914.00.
- 5) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 6) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED], New York.
- 7) You testified that you cannot afford to pay the monthly premiums for health insurance even with $250.00 per month subsidy in APTC. You want to be considered for more financial assistance.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution in 2017 is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Affordability Exemption

Under some circumstances, a person may receive an exemption from paying a penalty for not purchasing health insurance coverage. Such an exemption may be granted if that person can show that he or she experienced a financial hardship or has domestic circumstances that (1) caused an unexpected increase in essential expenses that prevented that person from obtaining health coverage under a QHP; (2) would have caused the person to experience serious deprivation of food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities, as a result of the expense of purchasing health coverage under a QHP; or (3) prevented that person from obtaining coverage under a QHP (45 CFR § 155.605(a), (g)).

NYSOH has deferred to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) on the matter of hardship exemptions (see 45 CFR § 155.505(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $250.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on March 24, 2017 listed an annual household income of $34,968.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You are in a two-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED] where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $34,968.00 is 218.28% of the 2016 FPL for a two-person household. At 218.28% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2017 is 7.08% of income, or $206.31 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($206.31 per month), which equals $250.15 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $250.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $34,968.00 is 218.28% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

Since the March 25, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated in relevant part that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $250.00 per month in APTC and eligible for cost-sharing reductions, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

You testified at hearing that you cannot afford to pay the monthly premium even with $250.00 per month in APTC being applied, which may qualify you for a hardship exemption. If you wish to be considered for a hardship exemption, which would exempt you from paying a penalty for not having health insurance during 2015, you can check the Federal Marketplace website (www.healthcare.gov) for direction.

Decision

The March 25, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 19, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were properly determined eligible to receive up to $250.00 per month in APTC and eligible for cost-sharing reductions in 2017

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:

- By calling the Customer Service Center at 1-800-318-2596
