Decision

Decision Date: July 19, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017416

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On March 28, 2017, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On March 28, 2017, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination finding you eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $49.00 per month, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 28, 2017, you attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan, but were unable to.

Also on March 28, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On March 29, 2017, NYSOH Issued an eligibility determination notice stating in part that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017, and you must have a qualifying event to enroll in a plan outside of open enrollment.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 23, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open up to July 7, 2017, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

As of the close of business on July 7, 2017, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period for you to enroll into a health plan through NYSOH.
- 2) On March 28, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance and attempted to enroll in a qualified health plan.
- 3) Your application on March 28, 2017 states that you were seeking a special enrollment based on your loss of employer-sponsored insurance on December 31, 2016.
- 4) You testified that you lost your job on November 17, 2016, and believed your coverage ended as of that date. You were directed to provide proof of the date on which you lost employer-sponsored insurance but did not.
- 5) According to your NYSOH application, your last date of health insurance coverage through your employer was December 31, 2016.
- 6) You testified that since filing your application on March 28, 2017, there have been no other major changes to your household.
- 7) You testified to a number of extenuating circumstances that caused your delay in filing an application with NYSOH for health insurance.
- 8) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you in enrolling in a qualified health plan sooner.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)
 - (i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that your previous insurance coverage through your former employer ended as of the last date of your employment on November 17, 2016. Your NYSOH account, however, reflects that you were to lose coverage as of December 31, 2016. Although you did not provide proof to confirm when your employer-sponsored coverage actually ended, relying on either date, loss of insurance coverage outside of NYSOH is considered a triggering life event.

When a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual has 60 days from the date of that event to select a qualified health plan.

You did not provide proof of the actual end date of insurance as directed, so this Decision will rely upon the date listed as the last day of coverage through your former employer of December 31, 2016.

Since 60 days from December 31, 2016 is March 1, 2017; you would have qualified to select a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period until March 1, 2017.

Your application and request to enroll into a qualified health plan did not occur until March 28, 2017; which is outside of the 60-day window.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017, as stated in the March 29, 2017 eligibility determination notice, is AFFIRMED.

Decision

NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017, as stated in the March 29, 2017 eligibility determination notice, is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 19, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
