Decision

Decision Date: July 13, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017428

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly terminate your qualified health plan for non-payment of premium effective, January 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 13, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your December 12, 2016 application, stating that you were conditionally eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $231.00 per month, effective January 1, 2017.

Also on December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice, based on your December 12, 2016 plan selection, stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan with a monthly premium of $334.00 after your APTC was applied, effective January 1, 2017.

On January 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your qualified health plan was terminated, effective January 1, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On March 11, 2017, you attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan, but were unable to.

On March 12, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $119.00 per month, effective April 1, 2017, if you qualified for a special enrollment period to enroll in coverage outside of the open enrollment period.

On March 28, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On March 29, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice to confirm your appeal request from the previous day. That notice stated that the reason for your appeal was "Denial of Special Enrollment (SEP)."

On July 10, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You were enrolled in a qualified health plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $334.00, effective January 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you received your premium bill from your health plan on or about January 24, 2017. You did not pay that bill because you were not going to pay a premium for a month that you did not utilize the insurance.
- 3) You testified that you called the health plan and asked them to begin your plan in February 2017 instead. You were told that you could not begin your plan on February 1, 2017, but that you could begin your plan on March 1, 2017.
- 4) You were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017 for non-payment of premium.
- 5) You testified that you contacted your health plan in March 2017 and requested to have your coverage reinstated, but were denied.
- 6) On March 11, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to re-enroll into a qualified health plan but were unable to do so.

- 7) You testified that since filing your application on December 12, 2016, there have been no other major changes to your household.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and "consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process" (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). "De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case" (45 CFR § 155.500).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

(1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:

- (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
- (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
- (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
- (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your qualified health plan for non-payment of premium effective, January 1, 2017.

On December 12, 2016, you were enrolled in a qualified health plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $334.00, effective January 1, 2017.

You testified that you received your premium bill from your health plan on or about January 24, 2017, but did not pay that bill because you were not going to pay a premium for a month that you did not utilize the insurance.

On January 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were disenrolled from your qualified health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective January 1, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the January 31, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to enroll into a health plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of a special enrollment period being denied.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony, along with the March 29, 2017 appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was “Denial of Special Enrollment Period (SEP),” permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your special enrollment request.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On March 11, 2017, you submitted a request to re-enroll in a qualified health plan.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

In the present case, there is no evidence in the record to establish grounds for a special enrollment period. You testified that there have been no changes to your household in 2017.

Though you did lose health coverage as a result of the January 31, 2017 disenrollment, the loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums. This is because NYSOH considers disenrollment for non-payment of premium a voluntary action that caused your coverage to be terminated.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience a triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of your qualified health plan termination date of January 1, 2017, as stated in the January 31, 2017 disenrollment notice, is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 13, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
