NOTICE OF DISMISSAL – INVALID APPEAL REQUEST

Notice Date: July 24, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017481

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

On March 30, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a plan enrollment notice, stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017. You appealed that determination.

On July 12, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the NYSOH Appeal's Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

You testified at the hearing on July 12, 2017, which was based on your March 30, 2017 appeal request, that you enrolled in a qualified health plan during open enrollment with the help and advice of an application counselor. You testified that you had coverage through your employer that included vision and dental benefits, but you spoke with the application counselor to see if NYSOH was able to offer you a cheaper option for comparable coverage.

You testified that after giving the application counselor your information, she informed you that she could enroll you in a qualified health plan with a premium amount that was $2.00 cheaper than what you were paying through your employer. You further testified you verified with the application counselor that your qualified health plan would include dental and vision coverage, and she informed you that it would. Therefore, you enrolled into the qualified health plan through NYSOH.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY – English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

However, you testified that when you attempted to receive treatment at the dentist, you were told by your dental provider that your qualified health plan did not include dental benefits. You testified that you spoke with the application counselor and she stated that there was nothing that she could do, and that you would need to speak with NYSOH to switch plans.

You testified that you called NYSOH, and NYSOH stated that you could enroll into a different qualified health plan that included dental and vision benefits, but you were not interested because all the qualified health plans with dental and vision benefits that NYSOH offered were for a higher premium payment than you were currently paying.

You testified that you filed an appeal because you would like to receive a partial reimbursement of the premium payments you made to your qualified health plan. You testified that you do not think it would be fair to ask for the entire premium payment back, but you want a partial reimbursement because you were never eligible for the dental and vision benefits you were told were included in the qualified health plan prior to enrolling. You further testified that you are currently enrolled through a health plan offered through your employer, and are no longer enrolled in a qualified health plan through NYSOH.

Why Your Appeal Request Is Not Valid

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Your appeal was requested to because you are seeking partial reimbursement of premium payment that you paid the qualified health plan. This issue relates to service coverage and payment of premiums which is not an issue that the Appeals Unit of NYSOH is authorized to address. Therefore, we must dismiss your appeal.

How does this Dismissal Affect Your Eligibility?

This Decision does not affect your current eligibility.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY – English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You may have additional options outside of the Appeals Unit of New York State of Health, such as through your plan or through the Department of Financial Services.

If You Think Your Appeal Should Not Be Dismissed

If you think your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. In that writing, you must explain why you think this dismissal should be vacated and if your issue differs from the one discussed above.

If you ask us in writing to vacate this dismissal, NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request and send you a decision on that request.

If we deny your request to vacate this dismissal, we will tell you that in writing.

If you do not respond to this notice within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed. No further action will be taken on it by NYSOH.
