Decision Date: August 02, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017513

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit ended effective March 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that your eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit was effective April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On November 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were conditionally eligible to receive up to $193.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective January 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before February 14, 2017.

Also on November 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in qualified health plan with APTC, effective January 1, 2017.

On February 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost. The notice stated that you were not eligible to receive APTC or cost-sharing reductions because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on February 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan with $0.00 of APTC applied to your premium.

On March 30, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were conditionally eligible to receive up to $208.00 in APTC, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 30, 2017 you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your APTC for the month of March 2017.

On March 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the March 30, 2017 application, stating that you were conditionally eligible to receive up to $208.00 in APTC, effective May 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before June 28, 2017.

Also on March 31, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan with $208.00 of APTC applied to your premium as of April 1, 2017.

On July 13, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your account indicates, that you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not receive any notices stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your household's income.
- 3) No notices that were sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 4) You testified that you do not remember when you were first aware that you needed to submit documentation of your income.
- 5) You testified that you mailed documentation to NYSOH months ago.

- 6) Your NYSOH account indicates that on February 20, 2017 your application was run and you were found no longer eligible for APTC as of March 1, 2017.
- 7) You updated the income information in your NYSOH account on March 30, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement of your APTC for March 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income for purposes of determining their eligibility for APTC (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any changes in eligibility to APTC effective as of the first day of the month following the date of the notice (45 § 155.310(f), 45 CFR § 155.330(e), (f)(1)(i)).

End of Tax Year Reconciliation

At the end of a tax year, a person who elects to take the APTC to help pay for the cost of an insurance premium must file a tax return to reconcile any differences between the amount of income the person reported to NYSOH and their actual gross income for that year. A person who received less tax credit than her maximum entitlement, based on gross income, may receive an income tax refund, or owe less in taxes. A person who received more tax credit than his maximum entitlement, based on gross income, will owe the excess as an additional income tax liability (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for APTC ended effective March 1, 2017.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking APTC, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources in order to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on November 17, 2016 you were advised that your eligibility for APTC was only conditional, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before February 14, 2017.

You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to provide income documentation to confirm your eligibility. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, NYSOH properly notified you of an inconsistency in your account and that documentation was needed to confirm the income you listed in the account.

If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine an individual's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation. Any changes in APTC are to be made effective the date following the eligibility redetermination notice.

Accordingly, your eligibility for APTC should have ended as of March 1, 2017, the month following the February 21, 2017 eligibility redetermination.

Therefore, the February 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to state that you were not eligible to receive APTC because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application, effective March 1, 2017.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for advance premium tax credits was effective May 1, 2017.

On March 30, 2017, you updated the income information in your NYSOH account. On March 31, 2017, a notice of eligibility redetermination was issued stating that you were eligible to receive up to $208.00 in APTC, effective May 1, 2017.

As stated above, any changes in APTC are to be made effective the date following the eligibility redetermination notice.

Since you updated your application on March 30, 2017, any changes in APTC should have been made effective as of April 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's March 31, 2017 eligibility determination is MODIFIED to state that you were eligible to receive APTC effective April 1, 2017.

Decision

The February 21, 2017 notice of eligibility determination is MODIFIED to state that you were not eligible to receive APTC because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application, effective March 1, 2017.

The March 31, 2017 notice of eligibility determination is MODIFIED to state that you were eligible to receive up to $208.00 in APTC effective April 1, 2017.

Effective Date of this Decision: August 02, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were not eligible to receive APTC effective March 1, 2017 because you did not provide documentation of your household's income.

Your eligibility redetermination for APTC should have been effective April 1, 2017.
