Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $206.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective May 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On January 2, 2017, NYSOH received an application for health insurance, in which you attested to an expected yearly income of $20,133.82.

On January 3, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the January 2, 2017 application. The notice stated that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 premium per month for a limited time. This eligibility determination was effective February 1, 2017.

Also on January 3, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your selection of an Essential Plan as of January 2, 2017. The notice confirmed that your Essential Plan coverage would begin effective February 1, 2017.

On March 20, 2017, NYSOH received four earnings statements issued to you between February 10, 2017 and March 3, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 28, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for health insurance.

On March 29, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $206.00 per month, effective May 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limit for that programs.

On March 30, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination that you were found eligible for APTC to purchase a health plan, rather than eligible for the Essential Plan. You were found eligible for "Aid to Continue" during the pendency of the appeal, so you were reenrolled in the Essential Plan for a limited time.

On July 13, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your NYSOH account reflects, that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself only.
- 3) The application that was submitted on January 2, 2017 listed annual household income of $20,133.82, consisting solely of income you expected to receive from your employer, [REDACTED], [REDACTED]. You testified that this amount reflected your anticipated income during 2017 after taxes had been deducted.
- 4) On March 20, 2017, you provided to NYSOH four earnings statements issued to you by your employer reflecting that you received (1) $524.41 on February 10, 2017, (2) $637.18 on February 17, 2017, (3) $715.76 on February 24, 2017 and (4) $670.76 on March 3, 2017.
- 5) On March 28, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance based on an expected annual income of $33,125.43. You testified that the updated expected annual earnings figure was an accurate representation of your gross income.

- 6) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 7) You live in [REDACTED], New York.
- 8) You testified that you were seeking to be found eligible for the Essential Plan, rather than for APTC, since it was more affordable for you.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 300% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.21% and 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $206.00 per month.

Your eligibility was redetermined on March 28, 2017, which was based on an annual household income of $33,125.43 ($637.03 in average weekly gross income x 52 weeks), reflecting your actual earnings received between February 10, 2017 and March 3, 2017. You testified that this figure represented your anticipated gross earnings during 2017. The eligibility determination relied upon the information contained in these earnings statements.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED], where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $33,125.43 is 278.83% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 278.83% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 9.06% of income, or $250.19 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($250.19 per month), which equals $206.27 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $206.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $33,125.43 is 278.83% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the March 29, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $206.00 per month in APTC, and not eligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
