Decision

Decision Date: August 02, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017544

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you're and your spouse's eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit ended effective March 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that your and your spouse's eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit was effective April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On November 22, 2016, NYSOH received your and your spouse's application for financial assistance.

On November 23, 2016 and November 29, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were conditionally eligible to receive up to $509.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) effective January 1, 2017. The notices further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before February 20, 2017.

On November 29, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your and your spouse's enrollment in qualified health plan with APTC, effective January 1, 2017.

On January 20, 2017, NYSOH received your income documentation.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 27, 2017, a NYSOH representative invalidated your income documentation.

On January 28, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating the documentation NYSOH reviewed did not confirm the information in your application. The notice asked that you provide proof of your household income by February 20, 2017.

No further documentation was received by NYSOH.

On February 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost. The notice stated that you and your spouse were not eligible to receive APTC because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application.

On March 1, 2017, NYSOH received your and your spouse's updated application.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $509.00 in APTC, effective April 1, 2017.

On March 31, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your APTC for the month of March, 2017.

On July 18, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified will be filing your 2017 tax return as married filing jointly and will claim no dependents.
- 2) On November 28, 2016 an application was submitted to NYSOH stating your annual household income for 2017 would be $60,000.00. You testified this amount was correct.
- 3) You testified that you were aware that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your household's income by February 20, 2017.

- 4) On January 20, 2017, NYSOH received copies of checks made payable to yourself and your spouse from your own business [REDACTED].
- 5) On January 21, 2017, NYSOH invalidated this income documentation because you needed to provide copies of your paystubs dated within 30 days of November 28, 2016.
- 6) No additional documentation of your income was received prior to February 20, 2017.
- 7) No notices that were sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 8) On February 26, 2017, your application was run and you and your spouse were found no longer eligible for APTC as of March 1, 2017.
- 9) You updated your application on March 1, 2017, and entered the same annual expected household income as your November 28, 2016 application of $60,000.00.
- 10) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement of your APTC as of March 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income for purposes of determining their eligibility for APTC (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals, whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any changes in eligibility to APTC effective as of the first day of the month following the date of the notice (45 § 155.310(f), 45 CFR § 155.330(e), (f)(1)(i)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your and your spouse's eligibility for APTC ended effective March 1, 2017.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking APTC, NYSOH must request income data from federal and state data sources in order to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on November 29, 2016, you were advised that your and your spouse's eligibility for APTC was only conditional, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before February 20, 2017.

You testified you were aware of the request for income documentation and provided copies of checks you write yourself and your spouse for your [REDACTED]. This income documentation was invalidated by a NYSOH representative on January 21, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine an individual's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation. Any changes in APTC are to be made effective the month following the eligibility redetermination notice.

You and your spouse's eligibility was redetermined on February 26, 2017 after no further income documentation was received.

Accordingly, your eligibility for APTC should have ended as of March 1, 2017, the month following the February 26, 2017 eligibility redetermination.

Therefore, the February 27, 2017 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to state that you and your spouse were not eligible to receive APTC because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application, effective March 1, 2017.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your and your spouse's eligibility for APTC was effective April 1, 2017.

On March 1, 2017, you updated the income information in your NYSOH account. On March 2, 2017, a notice of eligibility redetermination was issued stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $509.00 in APTC, effective April 1, 2017. This determination was made after you entered the same information as your November 28, 2016 application.

As stated above, any changes in APTC are to be made effective the date following the eligibility redetermination notice.

Since you updated your application on March 1, 2017, any changes in APTC should have been made effective as of April 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's March 2, 2017 eligibility determination is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The February 27, 2017, notice of eligibility determination is MODIFIED to state that you and your spouse were not eligible to receive APTC because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application, effective March 1, 2017.

The March 2, 2017 notice of eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.
