NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017634

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $155.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective May 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions, effective May 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 15, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your and your spouse's updated application for financial assistance on December 15, 2016.

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $682.00 per month in APTC as well as cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017. The income listed in this application was $41,600.00.

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your and your spouse's enrollment in a silver level qualified health plan for a premium amount of $262.96 per month after the application of $682.00 per month starting January 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 6, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated to indicate that your spouse was [REDACTED].

On March 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating your spouse's enrollment in her silver level qualified health plan would end on March 31, 2017.

Also on March 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that your spouse was conditionally eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2017.

On March 31, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance.

On April 1, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination notice based on your last application stating that you were eligible to receive up to $155.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective May 1, 2017. That notice stated your spouse was eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2017. The income listed in this application was $47,280.00.

On April 3, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the level of APTC and cost-sharing reductions you were determined eligible for.

On July 14, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on March 31, 2017 listed annual household income of $47,280.00, consisting of $43,680.00 you earn from your employment and $3,600.00 your spouse receives in income from her business a year. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) Your spouse was determined eligible for Medicaid effective March 1, 2017 after updating your application to include that she was [REDACTED]
- 5) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2016 tax return.

- 6) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED]
- 7) You testified that you have bills including rent, cable, and car payment that you think should be deducted from your household income.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2015 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21 % of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $155.00 per month.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The application that was submitted on March 31, 2017, listed an annual household income of $47,280.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your current expenses, which include rent, electricity and other living expenses, be considered when calculating your annual household income.

Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses such as rent, utilities, cable and phone to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $47,280.00.

You are in a three-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED] where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $47,280.00 is 234.52% of the 2016 Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for a three-person household. At 234.52% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 7.65% of income, or $301.41 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($301.41 per month), which equals $155.05 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $155.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $47,280.00 is 234.52% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

Since the April 1, 2017, eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $155.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
