Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for and enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan ended effective February 28, 2017?

Procedural History

On April 7, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, stating that you and your spouse were eligible for Medicaid, effective May 1, 2016.

On April 8, 2016, NYSOH issued a confirmation of your enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective May 1, 2016.

On January 5, 2017, NYSOH issued a renewal notice regarding eligibility for two other family members. Although more information was needed to determine eligibility for these family members, which was to be provided between January 16, 2017 and February 15, 2017, the notice stated that no action was needed on the part of you and your spouse, and that your current coverage would end on April 30, 2017.

On February 6, 2017, your family's application was updated.

On February 7, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, stating that income documentation for you and your spouse was needed by February 2, 2017, for your eligibility to be determined.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on February 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice, stating that coverage for you and your spouse would end on February 28, 2017.

On several subsequent occasions, you uploaded income documentation, and NYSOH issued multiple notices requesting additional income information.

ON March 21, 2017, NYSOH found that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in a full cost qualified health plan, effective May 1, 2017.

On April 6, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the disenrollment from your Medicaid Managed Care plan.

On April 8, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, stating that you and your spouse were eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2017.

On April 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming that you both had been reenrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan effective May 1, 2017.

On July 31, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record support the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your spouse testified that you would be filing a tax return for 2017 as married filing jointly, and that you would be claiming two dependents on that return.
- 2) Your spouse testified that the family had not moved.
- 3) You and your spouse were found eligible for Medicaid effective May 1, 2016, and you were subsequently enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan.
- 4) You and your spouse were disenrolled from your Medicaid Managed Care plan effective February 28, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid

Generally, most adults determined eligible for Medicaid are guaranteed 12 months of Medicaid coverage, even if they lose Medicaid eligibility because of any changes or updates they make to their NYSOH account. For example, even if income increases above the Medicaid limit allowed for the household size, the insured will remain covered under Medicaid for a 12-month period. This 12-month period is referred to as “continuous coverage” and is set based on the start date of the original Medicaid eligibility determination, or the date of any subsequent Medicaid eligibility determination based on modified adjusted gross income (NY Social Services Law § 366(4)(c)).

An individual will be enrolled or remain in their Medicaid plan with limited exceptions, including entering prison or another facility that provides medical care, lack of state residence, failing to provide a valid Social Security number, or having third party health insurance (NY Social Services Law § 366(4)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in the Medicaid Managed Care plan ended effective February 28, 2017.

You and your spouse were found eligible for Medicaid effective May 1, 2016, and that eligibility determination is not at issue in this appeal.

Under New York State law, once a person is eligible for Medicaid, that eligibility continues for 12 months, with limited exceptions. This provision is called “continuous coverage.”

Therefore, having been eligible for Medicaid effective May 1, 2016, barring the occurrence of certain events, eligibility for you and your spouse should not have ended before April 30, 2017.

Because there is no evidence in your account that either you or your spouse entered prison or another facility that provides medical care, moved out of state, failed to provide a valid Social Security number, or had third party health insurance, it was improper for NYSOH to disenroll you before April 30, 2017.
