Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) outside of the 2017 open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On January 26, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance.

On January 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $218.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level QHP, effective March 1, 2017. The notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan or Medicaid because your income was over the allowable limit for those programs. The notice instructed you to pick a plan for enrollment.

Also on January 27, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation confirming your child's enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan. The notice further stated that your health coverage would not begin until you picked a health plan, and advised you to pick a plan.

On April 6, 2017, you updated your NYSOH application. That day, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $218.00 per month in APTC, and eligible to receive cost sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level QHP. You also tried to select a QHP for enrollment on that day, but were unable to do so.

Also on April 6, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a QHP outside of the 2017 open enrollment period.

On April 7, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the April 6, 2017 application for financial assistance, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $218.00 per month in APTC, and eligible for cost-sharing reductions, effective May 1, 2017. It further stated that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On July 25, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On January 26, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance.
- 2) Your NYSOH account reflects that you did not select a health plan for enrollment on that day.
- 3) You testified that, when you called to update your account, you were told what the cost of a health plan would be, and you asked to appeal because you could not afford the deductible.
- 4) You testified that, even though you told the NYSOH representative that you could not afford the cost, you believed that she had enrolled you into the plan.
- 5) There is no record that any appeal was filed on your behalf on January 26, 2017.
- 6) You testified that you received paperwork for your child's coverage, but nothing for you, so you realized that you were not enrolled in a plan, and you called NYSOH.
- 7) Your NYSOH account reflects that you called NYSOH to try to enroll in a plan on April 6, 2017.

- 8) After the hearing, the Hearing Officer requested the recordings of all phone calls you had with NYSOH in January 2017, and two recordings were found. The first recording on January 26, 2017 was a conversation between you and a NYSOH representative in which the representative gave you the phone number for Healthfirst because you were inquiring about reinstatement.
- 9) During the second phone call on January 26, 2017, you updated your NYSOH account. The NYSOH representative informed you that you were eligible for a tax credit of $218.00, and presented you with three different plans. When you told the NYSOH representative that none of the options were affordable to you, the NYSOH representative offered to transfer you to someone with whom you could file an appeal, and you accepted her offer.
- 10) At no point during the January 26, 2017 phone conversation did you select a health plan or indicate that you wanted to enroll in any of the health plans.
- 11) There is no record of any other phone calls in January 2017, nor any record that you spoke to someone and filed an appeal at that time.
- 12) You testified that, since filing your application on January 26, 2017, there have been no other major changes to your household.
- 13) You testified that you are looking to enroll in a health plan for the remainder of 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a QHP and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a QHP, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a QHP because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.
- (5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the QHP in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for APTC, or has a change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to a new QHP as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a QHP or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a QHP; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a QHP (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the 2017 open enrollment period.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On January 26, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance. However, no health plan was selected for enrollment.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a qualified individual must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

You testified that, even though you informed the NYSOH representative you spoke with on January 26, 2017 that the premiums and deductibles she quoted to you were unaffordable, and that you wanted to appeal, you believe that she nevertheless enrolled you in a plan. You testified that you did not know that you were not enrolled in a plan until you received enrollment paperwork for your child, but nothing for yourself.

After the hearing, the Hearing Officer listed to the recording of your January 26, 2017 phone conversation with NYSOH. The NYSOH representative presented you with three plan options, and you stated that none of them were affordable, and that you could not afford a deductible. At no point did you request to enroll in any of the plans, and the NYSOH representative did not indicate that she was selecting a plan on your behalf. Since the record does not indicate that NYSOH, by action or inaction, made an error or misrepresented information, a special enrollment period cannot be granted on this basis.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's April 7, 2017 eligibility determination, insofar as it states that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
