Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NY State of Health as of March 1, 2017, because you are not considered lawfully present?

Procedural History

On June 11, 2015, NYSOH received a copy of your I-776 Employment Authorization Card reflecting a category code of [REDACTED]. This document was ultimately reviewed and verified by NYSOH on February 1, 2017 as valid proof of your immigration status.

On January 17, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.

Also on January 17, 2017, NYSOH received four earnings statements issued to you by your employer, [REDACTED] between December 25, 2016 and January 15, 2017.

On January 18, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your January 17, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective February 1, 2017. The notice stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limit for that program. The notice further stated that you needed to submit documentation of your immigration status by April 11, 2017 so that your eligibility could be confirmed.

On February 1, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for health insurance.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice based on information verified on February 1, 2017. The notice stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid, Child Health Plus, Essential Plan, or to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance. The notice also stated that you were not eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost. This eligibility determination was effective March 1, 2017.

Also on February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice confirming that your Essential Plan coverage would end effective February 28, 2017.

On April 7, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of those eligibility determinations insofar as you were not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan because you were not lawfully present.

On July 24, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. At your request, a Spanish-language interpreter [REDACTED] also attended the hearing. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The record reflects that you expect to file your 2016 taxes with a status of single and you will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) Your application states you are an immigrant non-citizen.
- 4) You uploaded a copy of your Employment Authorization card on June 11, 2015 with the status of [REDACTED], which was verified on February 1, 2017.
- 5) The status of [REDACTED], according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals.
- 6) The application that was submitted on January 17, 2017, which requested financial assistance, listed annual household income of $20,800.00,

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

consisting of approximately $400.00 per week you earn from employment with [REDACTED]. You testified that this amount was correct at the time.

- 7) On January 17, 2017, you provided to NYSOH four earnings statements, reflecting that you received (1) $400.00 on December 25, 2016, (2) $440.00 on January 1, 2017, (3) $440.00 on January 8, 2017, and (4) $440.00 on January 15, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you believe NYSOH is incorrect in its statement that you are not lawfully present. You testified that you are here legally, and that you believe you should be eligible for health insurance coverage.
- 9) You live in [REDACTED], New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

Qualified Immigrants Transitioned to the Essential Plan

In New York State, qualified immigrants who were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 19, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>). This category of qualified immigrants includes individuals lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States who are still in their first five years of permanent residency (18 NYCRR § 349.3, 8 USC § 1613).

Medicaid

A person who meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard is eligible for Medicaid benefits (45 CFR § 155.305(c)). One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. A person is eligible for Medicaid when his or her immigration status is satisfactory and he or she meets all other requirements for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your January 17, 2017 application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Qualified Health Plan

To enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) through the Marketplace, an applicant must be a citizen or national of the United States or a non-citizen who is lawfully present in the United States and reasonably expects to become a citizen or remain a lawfully present noncitizen for the entire period for which enrollment is being sought (45 CFR § 155.305(a)(1)).

Immigration Status

Generally, no person except a United States citizen, a naturalized citizen, a qualified alien, and persons permanently residing in the United States under color of law (PRUCOL), is eligible for medical assistance from the state (NY Soc. Serv. Law § 122(1); 18 NYCRR § 360-3.2(j)).

A PRUCOL alien is a person who is residing in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure from the United States such agency does not contemplate enforcing (18 NYCRR §360-3.2(j)). The New York Department of Health regards aliens who have been issued an Employment Authorization Document (I-688B or I-766), and have the requisite category code, to be PRUCOL (08 OHIP/INF-4, dated August 4, 2008)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The guide, “Key to I-766/I-688B, Employment Authorization Documents (EADs)”, defines certain codes on the USCIS Employment Authorization Documents” (08 MA/033, dated December 1, 2008, and as amended). It confirms that a person who has category code of “(c)(33)” has PRUCOL status for Medicaid and Child Health Plus only (id.).

Legal Analysis

The only issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH as of March 1, 2017, because you are not considered lawfully present.

On January 18, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective February 1, 2017. Your eligibility was contingent on you providing documentation of your immigration status.

On June 11, 2015, you provided to NYSOH a copy of your I-766 EAC. On February 1, 2017, this information was verified and an application was submitted to NYSOH on your behalf. That application listed an annual household income of $20,800.00 and reflected that you were an immigrant non-citizen.

As a result, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not qualified to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because the documentation you provided showed that you were not lawfully present.

Your employment authorization documentation states you are an immigrant non-citizen with a [REDACTED] status. The status of [REDACTED], according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals. Individuals who have obtained an Employment Authorization card with the status of [REDACTED] category are persons considered not “lawfully present” for purposes of the federal definition, and are therefore not recognized as eligible to receive federal funding under those programs.

In addition, while individuals who have been determined to be qualified aliens and were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016, this is not the case for persons who received Deferred Action status.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Therefore, NYSOH was correct in finding you not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan.

However, NY State has consistently recognized persons with Deferred Action status within the accepted meaning of “PRUCOL alien”; even though the federal government has not. The New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

Since your current Deferred Action status does confer PRUCOL status for individuals seeking Medicaid eligibility, we may review whether you met the financial criteria for Medicaid.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2016 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your applications, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since $20,800.00 is 175.08% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid can also be based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified that you receive approximately $400.00 per week from your employer. The documentation you provided on January 17, 2017 reflects that you received $440.00 per week during the month of January 2017, for a total income of at least $1,760.00.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. Since you testified, and the documentation you provided, reflects that you earned $1,760.00 in January 2017, you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

Finally, federal regulations require that a person seeking enrollment in a qualified health plan through the NYSOH have United States citizenship or satisfactory or immigration status. Under the federal regulations, individuals with Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals status are not considered to be lawfully present for the purposes of obtaining coverage in a qualified health plan through NYSOH.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Accordingly, the February 2, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan or QHP based on you not being lawfully present. However, your ineligibility for Medicaid is properly based on your annual household income being over the limit for that program, not your legal presence.

Decision

The February 2, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 27, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are not eligible for the Essential Plan or enrollment in a QHP because you are not lawfully present.

Although you qualify as a PRUCOL alien for state-based Medicaid, you are not eligible for Medicaid at this time because your household income is over the maximum allowable income limit.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
