Decision

Decision Date: July 31, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000017879

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit up to $296.00 per month, effective May 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan effective May 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On February 20, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance through NYSOH.

On February 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective April 1, 2017. The notice directed you to submit additional proof of income by May 21, 2017, to confirm your eligibility. The notice provided a list of acceptable documentation to confirm your income.

Also on February 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that, as of February 20, 2017, you were enrolled in an Essential Plan with an enrollment start date of April 1, 2017.

On March 1, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for a tax credit up to $284.00 per month, effective April 1, 2017. The notice also stated that you did not qualify for the Essential Plan because the income in your application was over the maximum allowable income limit for that program.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Essential Plan coverage would end on April 1, 2017, because you were no longer eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan.

On March 6, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

On March 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the income information in your application does not match what NYSOH received from state and federal data sources. The notice stated that additional proof of income was needed by March 21, 2017, to confirm your eligibility.

On March 13, 2017, additional income documentation was uploaded to your NYSOH account (Documents [REDACTED])

On March 16, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

On March 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for a tax credit up to $296.00 per month, effective May 1, 2017. The notice also stated that you did not qualify for the Essential Plan because the income in your application is over the maximum allowable income limit for that program.

On April 10, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to the financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.

On April 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, with a $20.00 premium per month, effective as of March 1, 2017. The notice stated that you have been granted Aid to Continue until a decision is made on your appeal.

On July 25, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return with the tax status of single and do not expect to claim any dependents on that return.
- 3) According to your March 6, 2017 application, you attested to a 2017 expected income of $15,600.00.
- 4) You submitted your last four paystubs to NYSOH on March 13, 2017. The paystubs reflects that you were issued gross income of:
 - (a) $600.00 on February 10, 2017;
 - (b) $435.00 on February 17, 2017;
 - (c) $600.00 on February 24, 2017;
 - (d) $405.00 on March 3, 2017

(Documents [REDACTED]
[REDACTED].

- 5) You testified that the paystubs uploaded to your account on March 13, 2017 accurately reflect your weekly earnings.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account, you reside in [REDACTED], New York.
- 7) You testified that you want to be found eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on “modified adjusted gross income” as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)).

“Modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer’s coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer’s expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer’s expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.21% and 6.43% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Income Verification Process

For all individuals whose income is needed to calculate the household's eligibility, NYSOH must request data that will allow the NYSOH to verify the household's income (45 CFR §155.320(c)(1)(i)). If NYSOH cannot verify the income information required to determine eligibility they must attempt to resolve the inconsistency including giving the applicant the opportunity to submit satisfactory documentary evidence (45 CFR §155.315(f); 42 CFR §600.345 (a)) See also New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 17, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for APTC up to $296.00 per month, effective May 1, 2017.

On March 6, 2017, you submitted an application through NYSOH. In that application you attested to an expected income of $15,600.00.

For all individuals whose income is needed to calculate the household's eligibility, NYSOH must request data that will allow NYSOH to verify the household's income. If NYSOH cannot verify the income information required to determine eligibility they must attempt to resolve the inconsistency including giving the applicant the opportunity to submit satisfactory documentary evidence.

The income information that was entered into this application did not match federal and state data sources. As a result, on March 7, 2017 NYSOH issued a notice directing you to submit additional income documentation to confirm your eligibility. The notice issued by NYSOH directed you to submit additional documentation that included a list of acceptable documentation, including paycheck stubs for the last 4 weeks (see Document [REDACTED]).

On March 13, 2017, you submitted your last four paystubs to NYSOH. The paystubs reflect that you were issued gross income of: $600.00 on February 10, 2017; $435.00 on February 17, 2017; $600.00 on February 24, 2017, and $405.00 on March 3, 2017 (see Documents [REDACTED]). Based on the documentation submitted, NYSOH properly calculated your expected household income to be $26,520.00.

You testified that you expected to file a 2017 federal income tax return with the tax status of single and did not expect to claim any dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis.

You reside in [REDACTED], where the second lowest cost silver plan for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $26,520.00 is 223.23% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 223.23% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 7.26% of income, or $160.45 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($160.45 per month), which equals $296.01 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $296.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $26,520.00 is 223.23% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The March 17, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $296.00 per month in APTC and ineligible for the Essential Plan. Therefore, it is correct and AFFIRMED.

Decision

The March 17, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: July 31, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You remain eligible for up to $296.00 monthly of APTC.

You remain ineligible to enroll in the Essential Plan.
