Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective May 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 10, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your December 9, 2016 application, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $266.00 in advanced payment of the premium tax credit (APTC) and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan for enrollment, effective January 1, 2017.

On April 10, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance.

That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared finding you eligible to receive up to $266.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective May 1, 2017. You attempted to enroll you into a qualified health plan that day but were unable to select a plan for your enrollment.

Also on April 10, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On April 15, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice consistent with its April 10, 2017 preliminary determination, which in relevant part stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On July 31, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On December 9, 2016, your certified application counselor submitted an application for health insurance on your behalf.
- 2) You testified that you began your application with a certified application counselor in December 2016. You further testified that, at that time, you requested to be enrolled in health coverage in January 2017, but some error occurred that prevented your enrollment. You have no idea what happened.
- 3) According to a telephone call recording, dated April 7, 2017, your certified application counselor called NYSOH on your behalf. During that telephone call, your certified application counselor stated that he did, in fact, enroll you, that he had a confirmation number, and that you paid the premium timely. Additionally, the NYSOH representative stated your enrollment was updated but that it was never transmitted.
- 4) You testified that you are appealing because you need health insurance for this year and it is unfair that you cannot get coverage.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective May 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On April 10, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance and requested to enroll in a qualified health plan. On April 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

You testified that you began your application with a certified application counselor in December 2016. You further testified that, at that time, you requested to be enrolled in health coverage in January 2017, but some error occurred that prevented your enrollment. The telephone call recording, dated April 7, 2017, corroborates this testimony.

Since the record indicates that your non-enrollment into a qualified health plan was the direct result of an error either by NYSOH and or its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity conducting enrollment activities, you should have been granted a special enrollment period as of your April 10, 2017 application.

Therefore, NYSOH's April 15, 2017 eligibility determination notice stating that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to state that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your April 10, 2017 application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of May 1, 2017, because your non-enrollment into a qualified health plan was the direct result of inaction by a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.

Decision

The April 15, 2017 eligibility determination notice stating that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to state that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your April 10, 2017 application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of May 1, 2017, if you so choose. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.

Effective Date of this Decision: August 22, 2017
