Decision

Decision Date: August 9, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000018009

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan with an enrollment start date of May 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On April 2, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective April 1, 2016.

On April 2, 2016, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that you were enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan with an enrollment start date of May 1, 2016.

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage. The notice instructed you to update your account by March 15, 2017 or you might lose the financial assistance you were receiving.

No updates were made to your NYSOH by March 15, 2017.

On March 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were no longer eligible for health insurance through NYSOH, effective April

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

1, 2017, because you did not respond to the renewal notice and did not complete the renewal within the required timeframe.

Also on March 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Medicaid Managed Care plan would end on March 31, 2017, because you were no longer eligible to enroll in health insurance.

On April 3, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

On April 4, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 premium per month, effective May 1, 2017.

Also on April 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that on April 3, 2017, you enrolled in an Essential Plan with an enrollment start date of May 1, 2017.

On April 13, 2017, you spoke with NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you disagreed with the enrollment start date of your Essential Plan.

On July 28, 2017, you had a telephone hearing, with the assistance of [REDACTED] interpreter [REDACTED] with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, none of the notices sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 3) You testified that you did receive a renewal notice informing you that you needed to update your application in order to ensure continuation of your health insurance coverage.
- 4) You testified that your application to renew your health insurance through NYSOH was late.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account, you were enrolled in an Essential Plan on April 3, 2017.

- 6) You testified that you want your Essential to begin April 1, 2017 to cover any medical expenses that you incurred in April 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid Renewal

In general, NYSOH must review Medicaid eligibility once every 12 months or “whenever it receives information about a change in a beneficiary’s circumstances that may affect eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual’s account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

NYSOH must provide an individual with the annual redetermination notice, including the projected eligibility for coverage and financial assistance, and must require the qualified individual to report any changes within 30 days (45 CFR § 155.335(c), (e)). Once the 30-day period has lapsed, NYSOH must issue a redetermination as provided by the notice, with consideration given to any updates provided by the individual (45 CFR § 155.335(h)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York’s Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly enrolled you in an Essential Plan effective May 1, 2017.

You were determined to be eligible for Medicaid, effective April 1, 2016.

Generally, NYSOH will redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for the Medicaid once every 12 months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency.

NYSOH's February 2, 2017 renewal notice stated that there was not enough information to determine whether you were eligible to continue your financial assistance through NYSOH. The notice instructed you to update the information in your account by March 15, 2017, or your financial assistance might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your Medicaid coverage was terminated as March 31, 2017, at the end of the 12-month period of your Medicaid eligibility that began on April 1 2016.

You testified that you did receive the renewal notice from NYSOH instructing you to update the information in your NYSOH account and also credibly testified that you updated your NYSOH account late.

The record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you that the information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated by March 15, 2017, in order to ensure the continuation of your health insurance coverage. Since your account was not updated timely, your Medicaid coverage was properly terminated March 31, 2017.

The record shows that on April 3, 2017, you updated the information in your NYSOH account and enrolled in an Essential Plan.

The date on which the Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you selected an Essential Plan for your spouse on April 3, 2017, it must take effect on the first day of the following month after April 3, 2017; that is, on May 1, 2017.

Therefore, the April 4, 2017 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The April 4, 2017 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: August 9, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

The enrollment start date of your Essential Plan is May 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
