Decision

Decision Date: August 14, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000018139

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly disenroll you from the Essential Plan for non-payment of premium, effective February 28, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your enrollment in an Essential Plan was effective May 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 10, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your December 9, 2016 application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017.

On December 13, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on December 12, 2016, stating you were enrolled in an Essential Plan for a cost of $20.00 per month, starting January 1, 2017.

On March 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating your Essential Plan would end effective February 28, 2017. The notice stated this was because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On March 25, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on March 24, 2017, stating you were enrolled in an Essential Plan for a cost of $20.00 per month, starting May 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On April 18, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the disenrollment from your health plan and start date of your enrollment in the Essential Plan insofar as it did not begin March 1, 2017.

On August 8, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your enrollment in an Essential Plan started January 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you did not know you were disenrolled from your Essential Plan, for non-payment until you had received an email alert notifying you of the March 23, 2017 cancellation notice.
- 3) You testified you believe you had paid your premium responsibility timely.
- 4) You testified after being alerted by NYSOH to your disenrollment, you contacted your health plan and was told they changed their computer system and payment method at the end of the year and that you were required to update your billing information to continue with automatic payments. You testified you were not made aware of this.
- 5) You testified your health plan refused to honor any backdate request or payments made for the months of March, and April, 2017.
- 6) You testified that you are seeking your enrollment in the Essential Plan to begin on March 1, 2017, and not May 1, 2017.
- 7) You testified you do not have outstanding medical bills which were not covered during the months of March, and April, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your enrollment in the Essential Plan for non-payment of premium effective, February 28, 2017.

You were enrolled in coverage with an Essential Plan with a monthly premium of $20.00 per month, effective January 1, 2017.

You testified that believe you paid your premium responsibility to your health plan as you were set up with an automatic billing schedule.

On March 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating your Essential Plan would end effective February 28, 2017. The notice stated this was because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

You testified after finding out you had been disenrolled for non-payment of premium through the March 23, 2017 notice, you contacted your health plan. The health plan told you they changed their computer system at the end of the year and as a result, you were required to change your billing information. You testified you were never made aware this change.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the March 23, 2017 cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in an Essential Plan was effective May 1, 2017.

You testified, and the record indicates, that you submitted a reenrollment request to NYSOH on March 24, 2017, and reenrolled into the same health plan that day.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

On March 24, 2017, you selected an Essential Plan, so your enrollment properly took effect on the first day of the second month following March, 2017; that is, on May 1, 2017.

Therefore, the March 25, 2017, enrollment confirmation notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective May 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the March 23, 2017 cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The March 25, 2017, enrollment confirmation notice stating your enrollment in an Essential Plan was effective May 1, 2017, is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: August 14, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change your current enrollment in your Essential Plan or the monthly premium amount that you pay for your health plan.

You may have additional options outside of the Appeals Unit of New York State of Health, such as through your plan or through the Department of Financial Services.

The effective date of your enrollment with the Essential Plan is May 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
