Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective June 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On April 20, 2017, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance.

That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to tax credits (APTC) and cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective June 1, 2017. You also attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan but were unable to select a plan for enrollment.

Also on April 20, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On April 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice consistent with the findings made in the April 20, 2017 preliminary determination. The notice also stated that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On August 1, 2017, you originally had a telephone hearing scheduled with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The call dropped and the Hearing

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Officer was unable to reconnect with you. Your case was returned to NYSOH to reschedule your hearing. The rescheduled hearing took place on September 5, 2017. During that hearing, the record was developed and held open up to September 15, 2017, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

As of September 15, 2017, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your April 20, 2017 application states that you are seeking a special enrollment period to enroll in a health plan.
- 2) You testified that you lost prior health insurance coverage through NYSOH on February 1, 2017.
- 3) According to your original account (██████████), you lost health insurance as of February 1, 2017, through NYSOH because you failed to renew your application for health insurance coverage in that NYSOH account for the upcoming policy year.
- 4) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you in enrolling in a qualified health plan sooner.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you file your taxes as single and presently claim no dependents.
- 6) You testified that you are now pregnant with one child. Your NYSOH application does not contain this information.
- 7) You testified that you work (██████████) and you expect your 2017 income to be $26,000.00.
- 8) You testified that you are paid approximately $1,100.00 in gross earnings every two weeks.
- 9) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you reside in (██████████), New York.
- 10) You testified that you want insurance going forward so you can see, medical treatment and care.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined on April 20, 2017, that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective June 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On April 20, 2017, after the open enrollment period ended, you submitted an application for health insurance and requested to enroll in a qualified health plan. On April 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

You testified that you lost your previous insurance coverage through NYSOH on February 1, 2017. This was because you failed to renew your application in another NYSOH account ([REDACTED]). Loss of coverage can be a triggering event in some cases if the appellant selects a qualified health plan within 60 days of the triggering event. In your case, it was a result of your failure to renew in a timely manner. Therefore, there is nothing in the record to support that you experienced a triggering event on this basis.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period as of the date of your April 20, 2017 application.

Therefore, NYSOH's April 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice that stated you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period as of June 1, 2017, is AFFIRMED.

However, you testified that you are now pregnant with one child. You also testified that you are paid approximately $1,100.00 every two weeks, which is $28,600.00 in annual gross income ($1,100.00 X 26 weeks). This information has not been updated on your NYSOH account.

Based on the updated household and income information adduced at hearing, however, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to consider your eligibility for financial assistance in all insurance affordability programs, and to notify you accordingly. NYSOH might require you to document your pregnancy on your NYSOH application and provide proof of your income in order to redetermine your eligibility.

Decision

The April 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Based on the updated household and income information adduced at hearing, however, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to consider your eligibility for financial assistance in all insurance affordability programs, and to notify you accordingly. NYSOH might require you to document your pregnancy on your NYSOH application and provide proof of your income in order to redetermine your eligibility.

Effective Date of this Decision: October 6, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You did not qualify for a special enrollment period as of April 20, 2017.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to see if you qualify for financial assistance in any of the insurance affordability programs based on your updated household size and income. NYSOH will notify you if your NYSOH application needs to be updated and if additional documentation is required in order for it to redetermine your eligibility.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
