Decision

Decision Date: August 14, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000018447

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Was your appeal of the NY State of Health's November 29, 2016 eligibility determination and plan enrollment notices timely?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that the start date of your Essential Plan was January 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 14, 2015, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On December 15, 2015, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your December 14, 2015 application, stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective December 1, 2015.

Also on December 15, 2015, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, confirming your selection of a Medicaid Managed Care plan, with an enrollment start date of January 1, 2016.

On October 9, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account between October 16,

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

2016 and November 15, 2016 or you might lose the financial assistance you were currently receiving.

No updates were received by November 15, 2016 and NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.

On November 18, 2016, NYSOH issued a discontinuance notice stating that you were no longer eligible for health insurance through NYSOH, effective December 1, 2016. The notice stated that you were not eligible for financial assistance because you did not respond to the renewal notice.

On November 23, 2016, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan ended, effective November 30, 2016.

On November 28, 2016, you updated your application for financial assistance with health insurance through NYSOH.

On November 29, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2017.

Also on November 29, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your selection of your Essential Plan, with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

On April 27, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your enrollment in the Essential Plan insofar as it did not begin on December 1, 2016.

On August 8, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The record indicates that you were found eligible for Medicaid on December 14, 2015, with an effective date of December 1, 2015.
- 2) You testified that you receive your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.

- 3) You testified that you did not receive any notices in the mail telling you that you needed to update your application in order to renew your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.
- 4) No notices sent to you at the mailing address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 5) You testified that you did not know that you needed to update your account until you started getting notices from the collection agency regarding unpaid medical bills from your December 2016 doctor visits.
- 6) The record reflects that on November 28, 2016, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.
- 7) You reenrolled into an Essential Plan on November 28, 2016, with a start date of January 1, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking to have coverage in the Essential Plan for December 1, 2016.
- 9) You testified that you were under the impression you had coverage for December 2016 because you were never informed that your previous coverage had ended on November 30, 2016.
- 10) You testified that you would have appealed sooner, but that you were never informed that you had the right to appeal.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Valid Appeal Requests

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by the Exchange to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Individual applicants and enrollees must request a hearing within sixty (60) days of the date of their notice of eligibility determination by NYSOH (45 CFR 155.520(b)(2); 18 NYCRR 358-3.5(b)(1)).

Medicaid Renewal

In general, NYSOH must review Medicaid eligibility once every twelve months or “whenever it receives information about a change in a beneficiary’s circumstances that may affect eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

NYSOH must provide an individual with the annual redetermination notice, including the projected eligibility for coverage and financial assistance, and must require the qualified individual to report any changes within 30 days (45 CFR § 155.335(c), (e)). Once the 30-day period has lapsed, NYSOH must issue a redetermination as provided by the notice, with consideration given to any updates provided by the individual (45 CFR §155.335(h)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York’s Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The initial issue under review is whether your appeal of NYSOH's November 29, 2016 eligibility determination and plan enrollment notices was timely.

The record reflects that you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance on November 28, 2016, and enrolled into the Essential Plan effective January 1, 2017.

Individual applicants and enrollees must request a hearing within sixty (60) days of the date of their notice of eligibility determination by NYSOH.

For an appeal to have been valid on the issue of whether you are eligible for your Essential Plan to begin as of December 1, 2016, an appeal should have been filed on or around January 28, 2017. The record reflects that your appeal was filed on April 27, 2017, which is well beyond the 60-day deadline.

However, you testified that you were only informed that your coverage would be effective January 1, 2017, and were never told you would have a lapse in coverage for December 2016. You further testified that you went to the doctor in the month of December 2016, and that you started to receive notices from collection agencies regarding your unpaid medical bills for the month of December 2016.

Therefore, it is reasonable to infer that you filed your appeal within a reasonably short time of learning that you did not have coverage for the month of December 2016. Therefore, your appeal was timely filed.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for and enrollment in your Essential Plan was effective January 1, 2017.

You were originally found eligible for Medicaid effective December 1, 2015.

Generally, NYSOH will redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for Medicaid once every 12 months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. NYSOH's October 9, 2016 renewal notice stated that there was not enough information to determine whether you were eligible to continue your financial assistance for health insurance, and that you needed to supply additional information between October 16, 2016 and November 15, 2016, or your financial assistance might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, you were terminated from your Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective November 30, 2016.

You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, the record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you of your annual renewal and that information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated in order to ensure your enrollment in your health plan and eligibility for financial assistance would continue.

The record shows that on November 28, 2016 you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in an Essential Plan.

The date on which the Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you selected your Essential Plan on November 28, 2016, it must take effect on the first day of the second following after November 2016; that is, on January 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's November 29, 2016 eligibility determination notice and enrollment confirmation notice are AFFIRMED because they properly began your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan on January 1, 2017.

Decision

The November 19, 2016 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

The November 19, 2016 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED.
