Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit ended effective April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $294.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before March 13, 2017.

On December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan with APTC and cost-sharing reductions, effective January 1, 2017.

On March 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost. The notice stated that you were not eligible to receive APTC or cost-sharing reductions because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application. This eligibility was effective May 1, 2017.

Also on March 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan with $0.00 of APTC applied to your premium.

On April 28, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to receive up to $294.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan for a limited time, effective June 1, 2017.

Also on April 28, 2017 you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your APTC for the month of April 2017.

On April 29, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $294.00 per month in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before July 27, 2017.

On May 1, 2017, NYSOH verified the income documentation you submitted.

On May 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $294.00 per month in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective June 1, 2017.

On August 8, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your account indicates, that you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 2) You testified that you are not sure if you received the December 14, 2016 eligibility determination notice stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your household's income. However, you testified that you did receive something in the mail from NYSOH advising you that you would need to provide income documentation.

- 3) You testified that you sent income documentation via regular mail to NYSOH at some point in February 2017.
- 4) Your NYSOH account contains income documentation which was received by NYSOH via regular mail on February 13, 2017. The post mark on the envelope the documentation was received in is dated February 11, 2017. This documentation was uploaded to your NYSOH on March 8, 2017.
- 5) Your NYSOH account indicates that on March 20, 2017 your application was run and you were found no longer eligible for APTC as of April 1, 2017.
- 6) You contacted NYSOH on April 28, 2017 and your eligibility was redetermined that day.
- 7) The income documentation you submitted to NYSOH was verified on May 1, 2017.
- 8) As a result of the income verification on May 1, 2017, you were found fully eligible for up to $294.00 per month in APTC.
- 9) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement of your APTC for the month of April 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income for purposes of determining their eligibility for APTC (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any changes in eligibility to APTC effective as of the first day of the month following the date of the notice (45 § 155.310(f), 45 CFR § 155.330(e), (f)(1)(i)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for APTC ended effective April 1, 2017.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking APTC, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources in order to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on December 14, 2016, you were advised that your eligibility for APTC was only conditional, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before March 13, 2017.

The record reflects that NYSOH received the requested income documentation on February 13, 2017, prior to the deadline.

Since you submitted your income documentation prior to the deadline, the March 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your APTC of up to $294.00 per month as of April 1, 2017.
