Decision

Decision Date: September 22, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000018532

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit or cost-sharing reductions, effective June 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On May 1, 2017, NYSOH received your application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared in response to the last application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan; however, you did not qualify for advance premium tax credits or cost-sharing reductions.

Also on May 1, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of that preliminary eligibility determination insofar as you were seeking to be determined eligible for advance premium tax credits.

On May 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the May 1, 2017 application, stating you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost beginning June 1, 2017. It stated that you did not qualify for an advance premium tax credit because your application stated that you were married but not filing taxes jointly. It also stated that you did not qualify for cost-sharing reductions because you were not eligible for advance premium tax credits.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On August 11, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you will be filing your 2017 income tax return with a tax filing status of married filing separately. You will claim one dependent on that income tax return.
- 2) You testified that you have two children. You testified that your older child is independent and does not live with you. You testified that your younger child began living with you on June 1, 2017.
- 3) You testified that you are currently married and that you eventually plan to legally separate from or divorce your spouse.
- 4) You testified that you last lived with your spouse in March 2017.
- 5) You testified that you are not legally separated from your spouse and that you do not have a decree of separate maintenance.
- 6) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED]

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC is available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable poverty level (FPL) (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

Additionally, a tax filer who is married must file a joint return with his or her spouse to qualify for APTC (45 CFR §§ 155.305(f), 155.310(d); 26 CFR § 1.36B-2).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

However, an individual will be treated as not married at the close of the taxable year if the individual

- 1) Is legally separated from his/her spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, or
- 2) Meets all the following criteria:
  - a. files a separate return from his/her spouse and maintains his/her household as the primary home for a qualifying child;
  - b. pays more than one half of the cost of keeping up his/her home for the tax year; and
  - c. does not have his/her spouse as a member of the household during the last 6 months of the tax year

(26 USC § 7703).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you are not eligible for advance premium tax credits and cost-sharing reductions.

In the eligibility determination notice issued on May 2, 2017, NYSOH denied an advance premium tax credit to you because you indicated that you were married but did not plan to file a joint federal income tax return.

To qualify for advance premium tax credit, a person who is married must either file taxes jointly with his or her spouse or qualify as “not married” at the close of the tax year.

According to the information in the record and your testimony at the hearing, you are still married to your spouse and have not obtained a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance. Also, you confirmed that you do not plan to file a joint federal income tax return with your spouse for the 2017 tax year.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

There is an exception, as noted above, that allows a tax filer to be treated as “not married” at the close of a taxable year, making the tax filer eligible for an advance premium tax credit. However, the record does not support a finding that you meet the necessary requirements for that exception.

You do not qualify as head of household because you are not legally separated from your spouse under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct when it found that you were not eligible for an advance premium tax credit due to your tax filing status.

Cost-sharing reductions are available only to those who meet the requirements for advance premium tax credits. Since you did not qualify for advance premium tax credits, NYSOH correctly found that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Since NYSOH correctly determined that you are not eligible for advance premium tax credits or cost-sharing reductions, the May 2, 2017 notice of eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The May 2, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.
